

Council u-turn on toilets

■ SIX-MONTH TRIAL FOR NEW CONTRACTOR

LYME Regis Town Council has made a u-turn on its decision to employ local people to clean its public toilets - last summer labelled among the dirtiest in the country - and has instead agreed to a six-month contract with a professional company.

Councillors decided to employ Glen Cleaning Services after they gave the council a quote of £9,246 for a year. Deputy town clerk Simon Ratcliff described this as a "very competitive figure" in comparison to the £11,180 charged by the council's previous cleaners UCL, and the cost of employing their own staff, estimated at £25,718.

Glen Cleaning Services was appointed to clean West Dorset District Council's toilets in Lyme Regis, and recruited the Lyme-based staff from UCL.

UCL then gave the town council notice, saying they would not be able to clean their Marine Parade and Anning Road Playing Field toilets as of April 18th.

The town council agreed to advertise for three local part-time cleaners and received four applications.

However, Mr Ratcliff said: "Whilst they may all be appointable there is clearly a chance that we might have to re-advertise.

Delay

"Even if we could appoint to all three posts, there would be a delay before they could start and we cannot afford not to have the toilets cleaned over Easter and May Day Bank Holiday weekends, especially as this is still in the school holidays and the Fossil Festival is on."

Councillors discussed a contract with Glen Cleaning Services at last week's Strategy and Policy Committee meeting.

Councillor David Cozens MBE asked if they were getting rid of the idea of employing local people, to which committee chairman Councillor Owen Lovell replied: "Not completely".

Councillor Daryl Turner expressed concern that they would not have as much control over a professional company as they would over their own employees, which was one of the reasons they had previously decided to advertise for their own cleaners.

"If we need them to be open at 10 o'clock on carnival night, would they be willing to do it?" he asked.

Councillor Barbara Austin asked where the cleaners would have to travel from if there was an emergency.

"If they were local they would be on the spot," she added.

Mr Ratcliff said the cleaners would only have to come from as far as Bridport or West Bay, as this was as far as their cleaning route went. He added that if the emergency was a blockage, they used separate companies to deal with this.

Councillor Lorna Jenkin complained of former cleaners UCL's "10 minute rule".

She said: "No matter what state the toilets were in they could only spend 10 minutes in there."

Mr Ratcliff said he could make sure that the new contractor's service was better than that.

In a report he handed out to all councillors, Mr Ratcliff

SUE Harvey is busy preparing for another hectic holiday season in Charmouth where she runs the Charmouth Fish Bar and now Love Chocolate.

After a career in children's publishing she opened a deli in Honiton eight years ago as she looked for a new direction in life.

After four years she, along with her husband Martin, began looking for a more seasonal business.

They have now run the Charmouth Fish Bar for four years and in December they opened the Love Chocolate shop, after Martin trained as a chocolate maker. This will be their first holiday season running both the businesses together.

After a busy summer season Sue and Martin like nothing more than spending the winter with their family and travelling the world.

■ WHAT first attracted you to Charmouth?

To be truthful the opportunity to run a business that was seasonal, so we could really go for it in the summer and have a bit more time to ourselves in the winter. Having said that we do open part time in the winter but we do get more family time than we do in the summer. Before it was 52 weeks of the year, now at least we get some leisure time in the winter, and it's a lovely place to live, it's very beautiful; it's picturesque.

■ DO you prefer the summer or the winter in Charmouth then?

The winter, that's a silly question. It is such hard work in the summer, we are a very busy fish and chip shop and restaurant and now with the chocolate shop this summer as well it's going to be even busier. We don't get any personal life at all so we welcome the winter.

■ WHEN did you develop your passion for chocolate?

My husband has been a chocoholic for ages and we both got interested in good chocolate when we had the deli. I started understanding about good chocolate, how chocolate originated and how it developed in the UK. It's something in the UK, like good coffee, that there is an interest in and so he went away to college to train to make chocolate and it's sort of stayed a passion and an interest ever since.

■ IS chocolate making an artform then?

Oh yeah definitely, without a doubt. It's a complicated process but also the quality of the raw materials is so important. My husband is very much a perfectionist and would only use the best Belgian chocolate and the best raw materials. That is the secret to good chocolate.

■ DO you have anything special happening for Easter?

Yes, what we are doing is creating totally unique Easter eggs. The customer can choose their shell, whether it's milk, plain or dark chocolate. Do they want it filled with truffles, fudge, Turkish delight, kiddies sweets? Do they want a different flavour top to the bottom? They choose what they want, they choose what they want to spend and we will finish it all attractively for them.

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

■ DO you still love chocolate now you are surrounded by it?

I managed to lose weight before we bought the chocolate shop but now I've put it all back on again. Everything has been tested.

■ WILL people be able to taste the difference with your chocolate?

Absolutely, we challenge them to come in and taste a truffle and see what quality chocolate is all about. We have already converted people within the village, even teenagers who have never tasted chocolate truffles before are coming in with their pocket money and having just a few chocolate truffles every week and they are sort of moving their way through the counter and discovering different ones, it's lovely.

■ WHAT was the last book you read, film you watched and CD you listened to?

The last film I watched was Chocolat, the last book I read was Chris Evans' life story which was absolutely brilliant and really interesting. The last CD was one I downloaded for the chocolate shop which was John Barry's themes from the movies,

■ YOU worked in children's literature in the past, are you now the Willy Wonka of Charmouth?

Everybody comes in and says because of the way we have put the chocolate shop together it is very much like the film Chocolat. People ask if Johnny Depp is behind the curtain. So perhaps we are a bit more like Chocolat than Willy Wonka.

Council rejects downgrading of town's polluted back beach

COUNCILLORS have spoken out against the proposal to de-classify Church Beach in Lyme Regis as a bathing beach, so it is not subject to future pollution checks.

At last week's Strategy and Policy Committee, councillors said that "masking" the problem was not the solution.

The proposal to de-designate Church Beach came after it was reported that it was unlikely the beach would ever pass pollution checks, and the idea was recommended by environment protection officers from the district council at a special meeting.

The proposal was put to the council by Tourism and Advertising Sub-committee chairman, Councillor David

by Philip Evans

Cozens, who said the beach was not well used.

At last week's meeting, Councillor Daryl Turner said: "My opinion is that we should not de-classify it. It has always been a bathing beach, even since I was a boy. Locals do use it."

Find a solution

"I would rather have it monitored, perhaps so that people can choose whether to bath there or not."

"If we are not displaying the fact that it is dirty we will be in trouble. You cannot mask it. You must go forward and find a solution. What if a kid picks up one of those nasty diseases? That will not look good if we have just tried to mask it."

Councillor Lucy Campbell said she was also not in favour of downgrading the beach.

"You're not dealing with the problem, you're masking it from the public," she added.

Councillor Ken Meech said: "You cannot mask it and you should not mask it. It is definitely a bathing beach. I took my kids there in the 60s and 70s."

Councillor Lorna Jenkin pointed out that agricultural run-off and dirty water from people washing their cars went straight into the river and would always create a pollution problem.

"This will never go away," she added.

Councillor Stan Williams said he believed that some sewage pipes were still not properly linked to the town's sewage system.

The town clerk, Mike Lewis, said that Southern Water had assured the council that they were dealing with this and would continue to deal with it.

The council decided to put the decision of whether to de-classify the beach or not off for six months, while they waited for more assessments to be carried out by Southern Water and the Environment Agency.

Councillor Jenkin voted against the decision, and said she believed the beach should be de-classified.

Council to place toilet cleaning with new firm

FROM PAGE ONE

wrote: "In addition to regular concerns over the state of all the public toilets in Lyme Regis, we were most concerned last year with the lack of supervision, management support and cover arrangements provided by UCL. I have, in my discussions with Glen Cleaning, stressed how vital the provision of good quality, clean toilets is to the town's reputation as a visitor destination."

"This is also clearly something that Glen appreciate, as their quality assurance and cover arrangements demonstrate, I also know that they have budgeted for additional cleaners to be available during the summer peak season if necessary."

Councillor Stan Williams asked whether they could guarantee that the new contractors would offer a better service.

"We need to know what we're getting into," he added. Councillor Ken Meech joked: "There are only two guarantees in life – one of them is death and the other is taxes!"

He added that the "public purse has to be considered" and that the service could be varied if it wasn't good enough.

Councillor Peter Williams said: "Until we try them we won't know how good they are. They will soon find out how much pressure is put on those toilets."

Councillor Lovell suggested that a structure needed to be put in place to check the standards of cleaning.

"We can't check them all the time but at least that way we can say they were checked a few days ago."

He also suggested that the contract be extended to October, to give the council more time to review the service after the summer season.

It was unanimously agreed to recommend to the full council Glen Cleaning Services be employed on a six-month contract to cleaning the Marine Parade and Anning Road playing fields toilet. That decision will be put to a special meeting of the full council on April 20th.

Grants for bona fide youth groups

TRUSTEES of the Lyme Regis Club for Young People will start distributing grants to bona fide youth organisations from this June.

The money will come from the £60,000 proceeds accrued from the sale of the club's headquarters in Church Street to the Development Trust.

Youth groups from Lyme Regis and Uplyme qualify.

Application forms detailing the grant criteria will be available at the Lyme Regis Town Council office from June 1st and should be returned to Audrey Coussens, at Cobb Trees, Whalley Lane, Uplyme.

Big Breakfast

DON'T forget this Friday's Big Breakfast being organised at the Baptist Church Hall by the Lyme Regis fundraising committee of Cancer Research UK.

This will be the third time the Lyme committee has staged the event and they are hoping to beat last year's profit total of £750.

Full English breakfasts with orange juice, toast and preserves and tea or coffee will be served from between 8 am and 2 pm for the price of £6. Bacon sandwiches are also available at £3. The committee will also deliver to shops and businesses if required.

The great West Dorset beach clean

AN army of volunteers are needed to join Dorset County Council's ranger service for the Great Dorset Beach Clean 2011 taking place this weekend. This year's event, organised as ever by the county council's Coastal Ranger Team, has already secured the support of the local Maritime Volunteer Service (MVS) to do their bit for Dorset's beaches.

The group is hoping to be joined by hundreds of volunteers of all ages in making a clean sweep of 25 participating beaches between Christchurch and Lyme Regis. Last year, nearly 800 volunteers, including more than 100 children, collected 820 bags full of rubbish as well as many larger items from Dorset's beaches.

Jenny Penney, Dorset County Council coastal ranger, added: "Marine litter is a globally recognised issue, posing a growing threat to our environment and wildlife.

"Plastic makes up the majority of rubbish on our beaches and in the sea itself. Plastic bottles in particular are carried away by waves to form floating rubbish islands in our oceans. Barnacles often stick to rubbish instead of rocks, while birds, fish and sea mammals can get caught in other pieces of plastic.

"Everyone is welcome to come and help to reduce the harm being done and make their local beach a more pleasant place to visit. Every little effort is worthwhile and it can all be done within a couple of hours."

Volunteers of all ages can join in this year's beach clean by simply turning up at any of the participating beaches at the meeting points and times below this Sunday, April 17th:

- Lyme Regis – The Slipway, Cobb Harbour – 11am-1pm
- Charmouth – Charmouth Heritage Coast Centre – 11am-1pm

'Vibrant future' for the theatre

TRUSTEES are establishing a "new and vibrant" future for the Marine Theatre in Lyme Regis, according to chairman John Bartholomew.

Replying to claims that the theatre had made a trading loss of £26,000 between December and March, Mr Bartholomew has given an assurance that the theatre is "firmly on course" to fulfill the promises made to Lyme Regis Town Council when the authority sanctioned funding of £30,000 to prevent the theatre from closing down.

In a statement to the View from Lyme Regis, Mr Bartholomew said: "A review of our commitments, including staffing, has led to significant reductions and our financial position is currently robust, helped by better than average box office at recent events. In collaboration with the consultancy provided by West Dorset we shall be establishing a new and vibrant future for the theatre with a new business plan by the end of this month."

The claim that further losses had been incurred at the theatre was made at last week's meeting of the town council's Strategy and Policy Committee by Councillor Daryl Turner.

Trading loss

Commenting on an interim progress report from Lyme Arts Community Trust, who own the theatre, Mr Turner noted that after the payment of all due bills to the end of March, the theatre had a surplus of around £4,000.

He interpreted this as a trading loss of £26,000 after taking into consideration the grant of £30,000 from the town council.

Committee chairman Owen Lovell thought the trust had managed their budget to the end of March and reminded councillors that the trust would be presenting a new business plan to the council by the end of April.

Councillor Peter Williams pointed out that the theatre had not reduced their salary and administration costs in line with the budget for the period December to January.

Referring to the alleged £26,000 loss assessed by Councillor Turner, Councillor Stan Williams described the losses as "beyond belief".

He also pointed out that the theatre trust had received the first of four payments of £8,000 in grant for the current financial year.

He asked how long the losses were going to go on and he wondered how long it would be before the theatre would be coming back to the council for more money.

Councillor Lovell said the theatre would have to £30,000 to see them through to March the theatre would have closed and he did not think the town wanted that to happen.

Councillor Ken Meech said even Andrew Lloyd-Webber's theatres made a loss in London let alone in Lyme Regis.

The Marine needed to "get it back" to working they now had to wait for the business plan before making any decisions.

Councillor Turner thought the council should be putting in a contingency plan.

He said: "We should be planning for this now. We need a plan B up our sleeves and not wait to the last moment and panic."

Mr Lewis pointed out that a consultant engaged by West Dorset District Council was compiling a report on the arts provision in Lyme Regis and the Marine would be a part of that. Councillor Turner said the results of that report might not necessarily include the Marine Theatre.

Councillor Lovell thought it was also a question of what the town wanted.

Councillor Stan Williams: "It is what the town can afford? This council will have no money left at the end of the season."

Councillor Turner said the council had budgeted for just an £8,000 surplus on a budget of £1.3 million. The town clerk replied that the council had contingencies of £26,000.

Councillor Lovell: "We cannot decide where we are going until we get the report back."

Councillor Lorna Jenkin urged the council to get the report as soon as possible.

The town clerk said it should be available by the end of May.

'A review of our commitments, including staffing, has led to significant reductions and our financial position is currently robust, helped by better than average box office at recent events'

work within the funds available to them in the future.

Town clerk Mike Lewis said the council would have to decide what support to give the theatre after the business plan had been received.

Councillor Stan Williams said it looked like the theatre could be broke again in three months.

Councillor Lovell reminded councillors that had they not given the trust within the £32,000 annual grant made by the council.

Councillor Stan Williams pointed out that the cost of running the council in the coming year was over £1 million, adding: "Is it worth them (the trustees) going on and on?"

Very high wages

He thought the cost of salaries at the theatre were "still very high".

Councillor Sally Holman thought the trust has operated within their budget for December to March and

Last week for public to have their say on future of theatre

THIS is the last week to complete the Marine Theatre survey. Trustees are urging all residents, all audiences and anyone who comes to the theatre to make sure they fill in the questionnaire before midnight on Monday, April 18th.

This is the community's chance to let Lyme Arts Community Trust know what it wants to see at the theatre. As part of its review of activities and development of the new business plan, the trust has undertaken the survey and will be able to consider the results when shaping plans for the future.

"We want to find out what people want at the Marine Theatre. We value your opinions and hope that you will take part in the survey", said trustee Fred Humphrey.

"And remember there is a draw for free tickets to the Theatre which anyone completing the survey can enter."

Printed copies are available from the Theatre Office (open 10am-3pm), the TIC, Staples Stores and LymeNet. They can be returned to these locations as well. For those with access to a computer, the survey can be completed online by following this link:

The Hub building work a priority for council

COUNCILLORS have said they would like to see building work at The Hub completed before money is spent on employing staff for the new youth club.

Lyme Regis Town Council agreed to give the youth club an initial sum of £50,000 and then an annual donation of £10,000. The funding was discussed again at last week's Strategy and Policy Committee meeting, after owners of the club, Lyme Regis Development Trust, asked what the requirements for release of the proposed funding were.

Councillors were told that LRDT wanted to employ a project manager and youth worker, although "vital" work was still needed to repair the building's roof and heating.

Councillor Stan Williams said: "There is no point putting programmes in place for a building that cannot be used."

Councillor Lucy Campbell argued that the employees could be getting on with "strategic work" before the youth club opened.

Councillor Lorna Jenkin added that the building would be used for activities in the summer, when the heating was not needed.

"They still need this revenue now. I think we must not delay the revenue funding, we should let them have it," she added.

However, many councillors argued that the roof repairs were more important and that they wanted to see financial plans in place for The Hub.

Councillor Williams said he wanted to see the same financial details that the council receive from the Marine Theatre.

"We are a public body. We have to make sure we have these things in place," he added.

Councillors were also told that Church Street would have to be closed to make repairs to the roof.

The town clerk, Mike Lewis, said that extra money would be needed for the road closure.

He added: "The county are quite restrictive of

by Francesca Evans

when you can have the road closed. We usually have to wait until autumn and we hope that they will not have to wait that long."

Councillor Williams said there was only one gap between now and summer when the road could be closed, the second and third weeks of May.

"We have got to get our act together this side of the summer, otherwise we are wasting our time. It's no good having another meeting and then taking it to full council."

Councillors agreed to hold a special full council meeting tonight (Wednesday) to discuss further how LRDT planned to use the funding.

Stroke Awareness Day

■ THE Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor Michaela Ellis, set a healthy example by being the first to have her blood pressure taken at a Stroke Awareness Day.

The event was organised by Richard Cridge of the Rotary Club of Lyme Regis, and was held in Fortnam, Smith and Banwell estate agents in Broad Street on Saturday.

A total of 62 people had their blood pressure taken by nurse Helen Polly, 11 were advised to visit their GP and of these two were advised to see a doctor urgently.

Lyme treated 'unfairly' in library cuts

LYME Regis councillors were angered by suggestions from Dorset County Council, offering a full library service that would have to be paid for by the town.

At last week's Strategy and Policy Committee meeting, councillors said it was unfair that Lyme Regis was being treated differently to Dorchester in regards to library service cuts.

The criticism came after the county council sent questionnaires to town councils throughout Dorset, asking the following two questions:

◆ Is your community interested in taking over the running of the building and responsibility for running costs with the opportunity of using the library for wider community use?

◆ Would you be interested in funding a fully managed service provided by the county council subject to charges being payable by your council?

Councillor Stan Williams said: "I think that is quite dreadful. Are they asking us to be treated differently to Dorchester? Why are we being told we should be managing it? We should all be treated the same."

Councillor Lucy Campbell agreed with Councillor Williams' objections.

"We should answer no and no," she added.

Councillor Sally Holman said that they did have to be "innovative" and look for new solutions to prevent Lyme Regis Library from being closed, but agreed that the council should reply no to both questions.

Councillor Daryl Turner said: "Cuts are going to have to be made. You could also look at this as an opportunity. Do you want it to be cut or do you want to do something about it?"

Councillor Lorna Jenkin, who has been attending meetings and campaigning to save the library, raised a suggestion made by county councillor Colonel Geoffrey Brierley, that opening hours and funds for new books should be cut across all of Dorset's libraries. This would save the £8,000 the county council need, meaning no libraries would have to close.

She added: "Even if this was only done for a year, it would create a breathing space for looking at the whole situation."

Councillors questioned why this option had not been included in the questionnaire, and criticised the fact that the deadline date for returned questionnaires was after the county council's scheduled meeting in June, when they will make the final decision on library cuts.

They decided to answer no to both questions and to include Colonel Brierley's suggestion in their reply, which they would ensure was sent before the June meeting.

Artists argue 'we're not selling from beach huts'

LOCAL artists were angered after being accused of selling paintings from their rented beach huts by Lyme Regis Town Council.

Last week, the View From Lyme Regis reported on an Organisational Management Sub-committee meeting, where Councillor Stan Williams said he had received complaints about artists selling paintings from council-owned beach huts, in a discussion about pedlars and buskers on Marine Parade.

Artists using the beach huts have argued they have never sold a painting on the Cart Road, and want an apology from the council.

Philip Clayton, from Seaton, has rented a beach hut throughout winter and is now sharing one with Lyme-based artist Brian Matravers. Both are working on a collection of about 150 paintings for an ArtsFest exhibition, to be held in the Pilot Boat, called "Views From a Beach Hut".

Mr Clayton said: "We never had any intention of selling them. We've been here all through the winter, most of the time when no one else is here because the light is better in the early morning or in the evening.

"Why don't they have the decency to come and talk to us first, rather than putting it in the public domain? Someone in a public position should know how to behave better."

In response to Councillor Williams' comment that the painters would "create crowds of people and cause problems like the stone balancer" in summer, Mr Clayton said that he wouldn't be there in summer, as he paints in France during the peak season.

"And why are we just put together with the stone balancer?" asked Mr Matravers.

Mr Clayton explained

that his paintings were often lined up outside the beach huts to dry, not to be sold, which Councillor Peter Williams had commented on.

Both artists said they would like to know who the people who complained are, because they have received so many positive comments on their project.

"We would like an apology," added Mr Clayton.

"They should have asked first and looked at the positives. It's just a shame."

Artist Caroline King, also from Seaton, added: "It's not just a lie it's libellous. It's ludicrous. They may be able to push everyone else around, but there comes a time when people have to say this is a lie."

Let West Dorset people, not council, decide

■ THE number of residents (of Dorchester's 16,000 population) who voted in Dorchester's official town poll 'FOR' Charles Street council offices was 156.

The historic Dorchester rally of a reported 1,000 people on April 2nd included people from all over West Dorset.

WDDC is trying to spend £10 million of our money on inessential, unwanted new offices for themselves. DCC also now plans to spend £5 million of our money on a completely unnecessary and unwanted new Dorchester Library.

Dorchester, and West Dorset, want neither.

Join WDDC's offices, and DCC's Library together and you get an example of the two councils 'working together', but a double white elephant, the length of Buckingham Palace!

I've written to Councillor Gould in his joint capacity on both WDDC and DCC committees asking how, recently, a new Dorchester Library leapt overnight from eighth place to first in DCC's capital priority list - a cruel blow to the survival prospects of 20 smaller libraries in Dorset now being cut back or closed forever.

For voters who want no Charles Street offices, no new Dorchester library and the saving of the 20 smaller Dorset libraries, let's ask every election canvasser immediately one question 'Does your candidate swear that, if elected, they will immediately urge cancellation of the Charles Street office scheme?' This might cause a penalty payment, but let the new administration weigh all up and act with the people's mandate. A small cost now would avoid the desecration of the South Walks area and save a much bigger sum to put towards other vital needs. It would also forever re-assert that the council is here to respond to and serve the will of the people of West Dorset.

Let's re-assert democracy. Let the people, not the councils, decide!

Burton Bradstock

Support the Corinthians rowathon

THE Corinthian Atlantic Rowers will be taking part in a 10-hour "rowathon" in Lyme Regis for their charities ShelterBox and the British Heart Foundation.

The team – Chris Walters, Brian Fletcher, Tony Shore and Elliot Dale – will be on rowing machines between 9am and 7pm on Good Friday, April 22nd, on the Slipway.

Last year, the rowers raised over £1,000 at a similar event and invite everyone to support them this year, and take part in a chance to win great prizes.

There will be competitions to guess the number of Easter eggs in a jar, guess how many kilometres are rowed in 10 hours and guess the number of days it will take the team to row the Atlantic in December. Tickets will also be sold for a grand draw to win a holiday to the Caribbean.

The team will be offering land crew membership for the Atlantic Challenge 2011, and cakes and refreshments will be available.

In December, the team will set off on a 2,500 nautical mile race across the Atlantic, from La Gomera in the Canary Islands to Antigua in the Caribbean. They expect to row up to 80 miles per day.

Surprise volunteer offers help with council allotments

By Francesca Evans

COUNCILLORS are hoping their new plans for allotments at Penn Cross in Lyme Regis will be a success after a surprise offer of help from the National Allotments and Leisure Gardens Society.

Councillor Lorna Jenkin reported that she received a phone call from West Country volunteer, Allan Cavill, offering to help organise all the town's new allotments. Mr Cavill said he would arrange the legal side of things, make agreements between allotment holders and the landowner of Penn Cross, and help set up and allotments holder's association for no cost to the council.

"He will even work out how to work the water with no cost to us," said Councillor Jenkin.

"He has organised all the allotments for the National Trust and has had no problems with any of them."

The council are now looking to hold a meeting with anyone interested in having an allotment at the new site, which is adjacent to the council's former unsuccessful allotment site, Strawberry Field.

New town map a 'labour of love' for artist

TOP illustrator and animator Keith Robinson says the creation of the colourful new Lyme Regis historical town map has been a rewarding challenge.

Keith, who lives with his wife on the Devon and Dorset border at Harcombe, began his commission for the town council last August, and the finished article, to be erected on a site at the eastern end of the Marine Parade, will be unveiled by the Mayor, Councillor Michaela Ellis, this Saturday, April 16th at 10.30am.

"The project enabled me to really explore the beautiful town of Lyme Regis," said Keith, who has lived at Harcombe for less than a year having previously operated from Brighton.

"I spent many weeks researching the project, sketching the resort, which I found fascinating. I soon realised the great potential and opportunity to create something special.

"It became more than just a commission for me and turned into a labour of love. I hope the town will be pleased."

Keith, 42, is an acclaimed commercial artist, having illustrated books and produced motion graphics for television programmes. He is currently working on a BBC series for comedian, writer and actor Griff Rhys Jones.

Chairman of the Tourism and Advertising Sub-Committee, Councillor David Cozens MBE, said: "My committee has been both excited and impressed with Keith's work. To say he has gone the extra miles for us is a gross understatement.

"We are confident that the town will be impressed. Keith will be incorporating the map in other publicity related material, and this has to be good for Lyme Regis."

Gig club invites residents to name their new boat

LYME Regis Gig Club has invited local people to suggest names for its new boat.

Work will begin on the club's third wooden pilot gig in October and will be launched in summer 2012. The club would like local people to help name the boat, and invite them to submit their suggestions by Friday, May 6th.

Club chairman, Marcus Dixon, said: "A wooden gig has a life of its own and its name shapes its character and inspires the crews that row her.

"The name should capture something of the Lyme Regis connection with sea, as is evoked by the club's existing gigs 'Rebel' and 'Black Venn'."

Lyme Regis Gig Club gives people the opportunity to row the inspiring Cornish Pilot Gig as a way of keeping fit, having fun and competing against up to 60 other clubs in what is the South West's fastest growing sport.

The club has grown rapidly and needs a third wooden boat if it is to be able to meet the high level of demand. The club plans to be able to run a youth section, send gigs off to race at weekends around the region, have gigs available at the Cobb for training and recreational rowing, and enable members to participate in endurance events like the row around The Eddystone Lighthouse or The Great River Thames Race.

Mr Dixon added: "Cornish Pilot Gigs tend to be around for a long time, the original boat that they are based upon Treffry 1838 is still being rowed in Newquay today. The name you help us to choose could be on a gig rowing from The Cobb in 2184!"

Name suggestions should be submitted by contacting Marcus Dixon on Marcus@lrtd.co.uk or by writing to Lyme Regis Gig Club, St Michael's Business Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis, DT7 3DB, by Friday, May 6th.

■ MARITIME NAMES: Suggestions for names should reflect Lyme's connection with the sea, like the club's two existing gigs "Rebel" and "Black Venn"

Police search for hit and run car

A CYCLIST was injured in a hit and run incident in Lyme Regis.

A red Vauxhall Astra collided with a cyclist as the car exited Holmbush Car Park on Sidmouth Road at about 2pm on Sunday, April 10th.

The car did not stop and continued to drive towards Broad Street.

Passers-by helped the 22-year-old cyclist from Exeter. He suffered a bang on the head, bad grazing to his shoulder and elbow, and was taken to hospital for a check-up as he had a headache.

The Astra is thought to have sustained a broken passenger-side wing mirror and may have a dent in its bodywork.

Police are checking CCTV to help find the car and if anyone has any information on the incident they should contact PC Richard Winward on 01305 222 222.

Sometimes u-turns are unavoidable

COUNCILLORS don't like the expression "u-turn". It smacks of their first decision being the wrong one.

There are occasions when u-turns are inevitable and I suspect this was the case when Lyme's elected representatives did an about-turn last week on one of the most controversial issues in the town.

We're talking about dirty, stinking toilets here, a blemish on the Pearl of Dorset that both town and district councils have failed to deal with. The least residents and visitors to the town should expect is clean public lavatories. Keeping them clean is not rocket science. It's a question of organisation, resource and commitment.

Town and district councils have failed on at least two counts (organisation and commitment) but there was every expectation this summer that things would change.

The town council shot themselves in the foot last year when, as part of the deal over the fu-

Lyme Matters

by Philip Evans

ture management of the Marine Parade, they took over responsibility for the toilets next to the Amusement Arcade after being strongly critical of the district council's failure to maintain the town's public toilets to an acceptable level.

It transpired that the town council's efforts were not much better, prompting visitors to write to this newspaper and others condemning the filthy state of the town's toilets. One even described the loos at the bottom of Broad Street, maintained by the district council, as the "worst in the country".

Enough was enough. Town councillors knew they had to get on top of the problem for the sake of the town's reputation as one of the most picturesque resorts on the south coast.

Both district and town toilets were cleaned on a contract basis by a firm of cleaners whose operatives spent very little time on their visits to each location. During peak periods, such as Lifeboat and Regatta and Carnival weeks, the sheer volume of people using the public facilities overwhelmed them. On one occasion raw sewage was running out of the toilets down at the Cobb.

Our local councillors quickly came to the conclusion that there was only one answer. Appoint local people who would have pride in their work to look after the loos. In the end it was decided to split the duties between three part-timers so there was always cover and because their duties could include looking after the toilets at the Anning Road playing field and caretaking at the regenerated Marine Parade shelters.

Advertisements were duly placed. Only four people applied, three of whom lived out of town.

And here's where circumstances forced the town council into a u-turn. Whilst this process was going on the company employed to clean the toilets decided to end the contract.

It was impossible, by all accounts to interview the candidates and make the appointments before the contract concluded with the end result that the council had no cover for the fast approaching Easter holidays and fossil festival.

That's why they were forced into the u-turn by appointing another contractor to do the job at a much reduced cost of around £9,000. The three part-timers would have cost the council £25,000.

Where the council went wrong in my view was to split the duties between three part-timers. One full-timer on a living wage and one part-timer to provide weekend/holiday cover, etc, would have attracted more potential candidates.

The new plan to revert to employing contractors was first discussed by a council committee behind closed doors.

I spoke to several councillors after last week's meeting and they all preferred the original plan of employing their own, locally-based cleaners. But none of them voted against the trial appointment of the new company, ie the u-turn, because they realised they had no choice.

U-turns, as I said, are not popular in the council chamber. But sometimes necessary.

It is to be hoped that this particular u-turn does not land the new council in even more difficulties as the season progresses.

My view, and I think that of most councillors as well, is that having local control is the best way forward, providing suitable employees who will have pride in the work can be appointed.

EVENT OF THE WEEK...

■ NOT so much an event - more an act of God. Can you remember a weekend in April when the weather has been so glorious?

With Francesca home from university and looking after the weekend engagements, I spent both Saturday and Sunday in our garden on a pre-summer tidy-up and planting out our flower borders and vegetable growbags. We even had a barbecue on Saturday evening.

We also strolled down to the Marine Parade where my brother had hired a beach hut to help keep his grandchildren amused during their Easter hols and you would have thought it was August Bank Holiday weekend with so many people on the main beach.

The increase in numbers of beach huts, and the fact that you can now hire or occupy them 12 months a year, has been a huge success for the town council.

The council have agreed to provide two director-type deckchairs for each of their huts and will be insisting during the summer that the beach hut occupants do not take up too much room on the Cart Road. Apparently it's going to be down to the council's enforcement officer to police the situation. Good luck with that one.

One or two cyclists used the Cart Road and it occurred to me how dangerous it was, weaving in and out of those taking a stroll and those enjoying the sun sat outside their hut with kids running around.

We tucked ourselves in as tight to the beach hut as possible but there were a number of near misses as the bikers navigated their passage.

It's certainly going to be difficult for the council to establish an official cycle path along the Cart Road, as is their intention.

■ CELEBRATING IN THE SUN: Retiring school receptionist Linda Deem (centre) pictured with head teacher Annabelle Grose (far left) and other staff members of St Michael's

School says goodbye to long-serving receptionist

ST Michael's Primary School in Lyme Regis celebrated the retirement of long-serving receptionist Linda Deem.

The school held a special assembly on the last day of term, to mark the 10 and half years that Linda has spent at St Michael's. She was presented with leaving gifts and staff later celebrated in the town.

Linda is looking forward to going on a cruise and spending time with her grandchildren in her retirement.

She said: "I am looking forward to retirement and I'm leaving it to the youngsters here now. It's been good fun working with Carys and Lisa, we make a good team.

"I'll miss running around all over the place with lost sweatshirts and things, and dealing with the local community everyday."

Especially for you, mum

■ CHILDREN from St Michael's Primary School in Lyme Regis made special posies for Mother's Day in the church hall, which they later took to the Mother's Day service at St Michael's Parish Church. All the flowers were provided by ladies of the church, who also assisted the children in making their floral arrays.

Make and Munch with all the family

LOCAL charity Health and Local Food for Families (HALFF) is teaming up with Dorset County Council Library Service to serve up a feast of family food and activities in Lyme Regis today (Wednesday).

HALFF run regular Make and Munch cookery sessions at Lyme Regis Baptist Church, where parents and children prepare, cook and then eat simple, appealing and healthy family meals, with the help of professional cooks.

Today's Make and Munch session is open to all the family and, after cooking, the children's imaginations will be fired-up with Dorset County Council's Library Service Rhyme Time team.

Rhyme Time, which runs fortnightly on Wednesday afternoons at Lyme Regis Library, will feature stories and activities all about food and growing, with youngsters and their parents encouraged to join in.

HALFF have put together a special Easter menu for the occasion, including a spring vegetable frittata, bunny rabbit carrot cakes and hot cross buns.

HALFF director Tigg Parry said: "We are always looking for ways to make our sessions as fun as possible, and we are delighted to have Rhyme Time joining us for this special Easter occasion."

The session will be held from 10.15am to 12.30pm. All the family are welcome.

For more details contact HALFF on 01297 631782 or visit www.half.org.uk

Woodroffe rewards student excellence

STUDENTS from the Woodroffe School in Lyme Regis were rewarded for their efforts and achievement throughout the year at a Senior Awards Ceremony.

Teachers, parents and family members applauded as the Year 10, 11 and sixth form students were presented with prizes by the chairman of the school governors, Peter Fortnam.

The event was held in the school's sports hall last Thursday. Students and guests were entertained by the school Jazz Band before headteacher, Dr Richard Steward, welcomed the audience and gave a review of the school year.

The presentation of prizes was broken up by musical performances, including a clarinet solo by Emma Franklin with Emily Aves on piano, and a guitar solo by Jon Pogson. The Jazz Band returned to the stage to close the night.

Lyme Media & Events Ltd, publishers of the View From Lyme Regis, sponsored an award for sporting excellence, which was presented to sixth form students Cameron Vere and Robert Fellingham.

■ ANYONE FOR CAKE? Volunteers at the Age UK coffee morning offering cakes and Easter treats

Coffee morning raises over £300 for Age UK

A COFFEE morning held at Abbeyfield in Lyme Regis raised £336 for charity Age UK.

The event was held on Friday morning, when guests were able to enjoy glorious sunshine and views of Lyme Bay with coffee and cake in the garden of the residential home, in Silver Street.

As well as the usual refreshments, there was also a homemade cake stall, greeting cards and bric-a-brac on sale and a raffle.

■ FOR OR AGAINST: Committee members of the U3A Heritage Coast branch before taking part in a discussion on the voting referendum

U3A discuss voting referendum

THE U3A Heritage Coast branch, based in Lyme Regis, listened to views for and against the Alternative Voting system at their monthly social morning on Friday.

Members of the branch gathered in the Woodmead Halls for a coffee morning, followed by a discussion about the voting referendum, which will take place on May 5th.

Margaret Rose from the Electoral Reform Society explained the Alternative Voting system and a representative of No2AV defended the present First Past the Post system.

The branch now has about 500 members and offers 45 active groups, ranging from tennis to scrabble to gardening. New classes include a current affairs and topical discussion class, and mah-jong class.

Little Groves

At Little Groves, the nursery is now bursting with perennial plants. For those less experienced gardeners, these are plants that come up year after year and bring brilliant colour to your garden. They have great deals such as three 9cm perennials for just £5, or for something a bit bigger, there are also those in 1litre pots from just £2.75 or larger 2 litre pots from £4.15. There are all of the usual favourites, such as Verbena, Penstemons, Rudbeckia, Lupins and Delphiniums, as well as some more unusual treasures. And remember at Little Groves they are all arranged in helpful themes, such as plants for Summer colour, plants for shade or plants to attract butterflies to your garden – so it's easy gardening with Little Groves nursery.

Tim Barrett Services

Tim Barrett Building, Landscaping and Groundwork is a well established company with many regular clients. My name and reputation goes with every job I complete, so I aim to provide the best service I can.

Business owner Tim Barrett has worked in the construction sector since 1994 before setting up his own company in 2005 which has gone from strength to strength ever since.

Whatever your requirements, you can expect a professional service – from your initial enquiry to completion. There is no compromise on quality, whether I'm replacing a single broken paving slab or building a two-storey extension.

Some contractors may offer a cheaper alternative but beware, this may also compromise quality. When asking more than one contractor to supply a quotation, please ensure that the quotations are for the same specifications.

I can tailor quotations to suit the majority of budgets.

Spring clean your greenhouse!

General Maintenance Tips

- Put canes around plants that need support; such as cordon tomatoes and melons, and tie in emerging shoots.
- Prick out, pot on and pinch out plants as needed. Summer pruning and fruit thinning may be required with some plants, such as grape vines.
- Water regularly, making sure that the composts and soils don't dry out.
- Weed around plants and in the beds.
- Make sure that plants are fed as required.
- Put up shade nets in early summer to protect plants from scorching by direct overhead sunlight. Shading washes can also be sprayed onto the outside of the greenhouse and washed off in autumn.
- Avoid watering plants in the middle of the day during summer as this can scorch the leaves.

- Some plants prefer high humidity, so splash the floor with water (called 'damping down') each day in the summer or use a hand-held mist sprayer.
- Look out for pests and diseases and treat appropriately. Common pests in warm, humid conditions include aphids, red spider mite and mealy bug. Diseases include mildew and botrytis.

Humidity control

- Cold water straight from the tap can shock plant roots in summer. Therefore keep a watering can full of water inside the greenhouse during summer to ensure you have a supply of warmer water.
- Another way of raising humidity is to place a tray of water on the floor which will slowly evaporate into the air.
- To lower humidity, keep vents and windows open in the summer. This will help to keep plants cool and prevent scorching in the heat of the day.
- You may want to invest in automatic vents which open and close according to the temperature. Extractor fans are also useful.

Exterior

- Clean the exterior of the greenhouse by washing the panes of glass with warm water and a sponge.
- Higher parts of the greenhouse can be reached by attaching a sponge to the end of a broom handle or a bamboo cane.
- Old plastic labels or a gentle jet wash attachment on the end of a hose are ideal for getting in under the window panel joints to remove the build up of dirt underneath.

- Clean on a moderately windy day and let the breezes dry out the greenhouse as it's washed.
- Once the panes of glass are dry, insulate the greenhouse with bubblewrap to protect any plants you are overwintering, and to encourage the greenhouse to heat up more rapidly in the spring.
- Check the panels for any broken or cracked glass. They should be replaced. If you are planning on doing the job yourself, then you should wear gloves and goggles.
- Wooden frames can be painted using a wood preservative, making sure that none of the solution touches the plants.

Interior

- When starting on the interior of the greenhouse, ensure that the electricity is turned off and all electrical equipment such as heaters and radios are unplugged.
- Clean the interior by removing all the containers, pots and shelving/staging.
- If some of the plants are slightly tender, then move them into another shed or greenhouse.
- Otherwise, wrap them in fleeces and try not to keep them outside for too long.
- If the temperature is cold outside, then you will just have to work around them in the greenhouse.
- Throw out old used growing bags, remove all the leaves that will have fallen from the plants, and sweep the floor to remove any dirt and spilled soil.
- Also, pick off any damaged or infected leaves and burn them.
- Throw out any dead and dying plants.
- Weed the plant beds.
- The paths and brick walls should also be scrubbed with clean water and disinfectant.
- Sterilise containers, staging, propagation benches and capillary matting - although replacing capillary matting each year is better.
- Also check that all ventilation panels and windows are operating properly and lighting and watering/irrigation systems are working.

Sherborne Turf

Established in 1972, Sherborne Turf has grown steadily to encompass all aspects of gardening, while maintaining its traditional values. Our turf is grown in high quality farmland which forms part of The Trent Estate, using a unique blend of grasses that will knit together to form a firm base.

From our location in picturesque village of Trent, we are able to service an area within a 50 mile radius of Sherborne using our own fleet of vehicles and drivers experienced in the handling of turf.

We also supply a full range of ameliorants, all locally sourced. Our topsoil is screened to 10mm and stored under cover in the winter for delivery in bulk bags. Alternatively loose loads are available for bulk orders, delivered using vehicles ranging from a 4-wheel tipper to an 8-wheel bulker. Our range of composts and mulches are also available from stock, and with a wide variety to choose from, we have something to cover every aspect of your garden.

The landscape accessories and irrigation equipment we sell are the same type and quality used by our own experienced team of landscapers, and these reflect the same high standard Sherborne Turf has built its reputation on.

All of the staff at Sherborne Turf have experience of the products we sell, so for assistance on any aspect of your garden project, please give us a call on 01935 850388. Office hours are 8am to 6pm Monday to Friday, and Saturday mornings during busy periods.

Groves Nurseries

Groves Nurseries is looking absolutely stunning at this time of year and is fit to bursting with an unrivalled collection of quality plants at amazing value. If it's that cottage garden effect you are looking for then their range of 9cm herbaceous perennials are a great start at £1.95 each or 3 for £5.00. If traditional garden shrubs are more your thing then they are also on a great offer of £3.95 each or 3 for £10.00.

The vegetable garden is also just starting to get interesting. Tomato plants and chillies are available now; just make sure they are kept indoors at night to protect them from frosts. But if you fancy trying something more challenging; Groves have just received this season supply of asparagus. Our 1 year old crowns need a warm sunny position and free draining soil loads of TLC and in a couple of years you will have a lovely fresh crop of your very own asparagus!

JC Phillips & Son

JC Phillips & Son was established in 1901 by Josiah Charles Phillips supplying haulage for the local community. Further development saw the business turn to specialising in bird sands and gravels and general grits and aquarium gravels and also to water filtration media. The business today still supplies these specialist markets but also provides a wide range of building aggregates, sands and decorative gravels and cobbles to both trade and retail customers. Stockists of both Bradstone and Brett paving (including natural sandstone and slate paving) the company offers a wide range of garden landscaping products including slate monoliths, drilled stones for water features, Purbeck walling stone and crazy paving and top soil.

All sands and aggregates are available in bulk, 25g or 1 tonne bags collected or delivered using crane off-load if required. A Ministry approved weighbridge ensures correct bag and vehicle weight.

Decades of experience at Bartle Pye Residential

BARTLE PYE RESIDENTIAL is a partnership headed by Sue Burden, Mariana Hardcastle and Phillip Rockford FNAEA, who between them have decades of experience in the property market; both nationally and more importantly in the local area. Our aim is to offer all our clients a service that outshines other estate agents and delivers discretion, trust and absolute reliability. We work closely with solicitors, surveyors, lenders and financial advisors to provide effective solutions from the straight forward to the more complex transaction.

Our standards are based on the principal of not just selling houses but helping people to make the right move. We sell homes for people with an emphasis on "homes" and "people".

Phillip Rockford FNAEA CPEA MCMI. Phillip has been in the property business for the past 14 years. Having obtained his CPEA qualifications from the National Association of Estate Agents in 2000. He has managed a number of branches within Dorset and Hampshire and so brings a wealth of knowledge and experience relating to the current market.

Sue Burden has been selling property for more than two decades, throughout Hampshire, Wiltshire and Dorset. Dorset has been her home for the last 12 years and she has loved working in the Dorchester area for all of that time, managing branches, running new homes sites and assisting developers. Her speciality is land and new homes, although she is equally at home marketing resale properties.

Mariana Hardcastle joined BARTLE PYE RESIDENTIAL bringing over 20 years of Residential Sales experience to the table. Her wealth of experience was largely gained in London - working within some of the top High Street Agencies within the Capital from Clapham through to Chelsea and finally spending approximately nine years heading up the exciting growth of the residential market in and around London and Tower Bridges including Borough Market and Bermondsey.

Having broad experience, we provide specialist advice on planning, building and maintenance, development, valuation, rent reviews and rating. We provide a full range of commercial agency services including sales and acquisitions, leasing and project sales.

Get yourself looking good and feeling great!

A new business has opened in Dorchester with the arrival of Butler and Company to the Tudor Arcade.

Although a hairdresser with over 20 years experience, this is the first business, owner Karen Butler from Bridport, has set up and she is relishing the prospect of running her own salon. Karen has worked in Dorchester in the past and loves the buzz and vibe of the town so is excited to be back.

The salon was opened by the Mayor of Dorchester, with a champagne reception and Councillor Leslie Phillips in attendance, alongside the Dorchester BID's Phil Gordon.

Karen and her two members of staff, Kerry Robbins and Jessica Ritchie, have created a bright, cheery salon with a real feel good factor.

A friendly atmosphere greets you as soon as you walk through the door, so if you are thinking of treating yourself to a new hairstyle and a bit of pampering for the festive season, let Karen and her staff work their magic on you and make you feel like a new person. They have a variety of services on offer including, up to date cutting techniques, colouring, foils, and conditioning treatments. They use Redken colour and styling products, as well as Pureology. They also offer free consultations, free fringe trims, and late night openings on Thursdays until 8pm, by appointment only.

Discover your alter ego!

Alter Ego of Dorchester and Bournemouth (Westbourne) is an Aladdin's cave of all things fancy dress, and THE place to visit for all your Christmas and New Year party costumes and accessories.

Alter Ego has thousands of quality costumes for hire, with new ones arriving regularly. The costumes are selected from the best of British and continental suppliers, and many are also specially made to the company's own designs to give you a distinctive look. All costumes are fresh and clean, as they are maintained on site as soon as they are returned. Do you want quality costumes at a reasonable price? Then why buy when you can hire what you need to make your alter ego come alive!

You will find costumes for all periods of history including the Ancient World, Medieval and Victorian, as well as the sixties, seventies, and eighties. Characters are available from film and literature such as Alice in Wonderland, Treasure Island, Austin Powers, Snow White, Tarzan and Jane, Scooby Doo and many, many more. There is also an excellent range of hiring costumes for children suited to school requirements such as history days, Nativity plays, and other seasonal events. You can even have costumes made to your requirements.

Alongside the hire service stands a treasure trove of accessories including packet costumes, wigs, masks, make up, hats and the exciting new Colourvue range of fashion and fantasy contact lenses.

If you want to be sure of a striking costume then call by Alter Ego in High East Street and see what they have to offer to make your fancy dress party a success.

History of the Oakroom

The Monmouth Rebellion

The Duke of Monmouth landed at Lyme Regis on the 11th June 1685 to challenge King James' claim to the throne, following the death of Charles II. He assembled an army in excess of 3000 men and marched to Sedgemoor in Somerset.

He was defeated by the King's army in less than a month. Around 1300 were taken prisoner. Five Judges came to Dorchester with the infamous Judge Jeffreys, whose reputation was that of the 'hanging judge'.

In September 1685, 312 cases were heard in the Oakroom at the rear of the Antelope Hotel; of these 292 were sentenced to death. Only 74 were executed, with 175 transported, 9 were fined or whipped and 54 were discharged.

Judge Jeffreys - having his eye on promotion - was later made Lord Chancellor.

When King James fell and William of Orange landed in Torbay, Jeffreys was captured and imprisoned in the Tower of London. He died in 1689 while awaiting trial, probably of natural causes. Rumours at the time said he has been poisoned while in the Tower and that his body had been returned to Dorchester and walked up in the Courtroom - now the Oakroom.

This 17th Century Oak panelled room has been carefully restored to maintain its character and original features.

Today it is called The Oakroom and is a delightful tearoom, with a peaceful, tranquil atmosphere, replicating the style and service of a Lyons Corner House.

The Oakroom of today serves a variety of light meals throughout the day, lunches and of course, Dorset Clotted Cream Teas.

Wooden shutters to enhance your home

Create a beautiful interplay of light and shade with Santa Fe Shutters. Inspired by the great plantation mansions of America's Deep South, these classic, streamlined interior shutters lend a sophisticated dimension to any room. What's more, Santa Fe Shutters give you the freedom to control the mood and degree of light. At a touch, change the aspect from dimout, to bright, delicate light diffusion.

The sleek, adjustable blades ensure privacy, reduce external noise and enhance insulation. Carefully crafted for years of lasting beauty, Santa Fe Shutters make an exceptional long term investment. These modern yet elegant designs add value and distinction to your home, no matter how often you redecorate.

Yet you'd be surprised how affordable it can be to enjoy the enduring luxury of Santa Fe Shutters in your home.

Crafted from finest basswood, Santa Fe Shutters come in a choice of three designs to complement virtually any type of window and style of room. However you choose to express yourself; modern minimalist, traditional décor, or bold and original, there's a shutter to suit. Full height, tier on tier or café style are all on offer.

Interior shutters can also be designed to fit most patio doors and French windows. Even more distinctively, Santa Fe Shutters can be used as handsome and very effective room dividers. For smooth operation a track system is used. For more information, please feel free to give us a call.

The Fireplace - Still the heart of your home

As a crucial source of heat in your home, and with a huge range of styles to choose from, fires and fireplaces are once again at the top of the list of desirable features. A fireplace puts heart into a house, and flickering firelight provides a delightful ambience and a real focal point for your room.

Although traditionally constructed of heavy permanent materials, fireplaces needn't be forever. A carefully chosen fireplace provides a dramatic facelift; its installation possibly taking no more than a day or two, and the total cost is worth every penny when you see the end result!

There are two main aspects to consider. The style and appearance of the fireplace itself and the fuel it will use. Fuel may be the traditional 'solid fuel', or perhaps you find gas or electricity more convenient. There is a vast choice of materials from which a new fireplace can be made. So put the heart back in your home - take a look at the wide range of ideas at Casterbridge Fires Ltd - from stoves to open fires, from wood to marble, from plain to fancy.

Spring Collections now in store

Call in to view the latest collections that Gift of Elegance has to offer this spring. With strong selections of stock continually arriving over the next few months, this charming boutique is the place to visit in Dorchester.

Since opening its doors in May 2009 this independent gift and gallery boutique is proving to be that popular place to find that special present, small gift, or something to suit your home interior, there is a lot to offer.

Choose from the bold array of affordable and inspirational gift ideas; including Danish designed Pilgrim jewellery, hand-made fused glassware, and a lovely selection of limited edition and original artwork from local and international artists.

Maybe you'll be tempted by local artist Rebecca Lardner's portrayals of life on the land and the sea, where the large ensemble cast of figures, boats and sea birds in each painting create an impression of ceaseless activity, which is heightened by the natural curves of the classic English harbour providing movement and energy in each picture.

The friendly welcome and professional service, along with the ever changing stock, will inspire you to come back for more.

Open 9am - 5pm Monday-Friday and 9am-4pm Saturday. (Located Trinity Street, Dorchester)

Achieve the figure and fitness you deserve

Fighting the flab and going to the gym can be a real drag – especially if you feel you have to “compete” with the toned bodies that some people display.

Thankfully, it doesn't have to be that way. At Physiques and Shapes any woman - and in our ladies gym it's only women - no matter how old, how fit or whatever her shape, really can feel good, improve her figure and her level of fitness.

New to the gym is a brand new room featuring state of the art Shapemaster equipment. Ladies have reported that these remarkable machines can produce the most amazing results such as the loss of 12 inches after just ten sessions!

So how are such remarkable results achieved?

Shapemaster equipment, a redesigned version of toning tables that are suitable for all levels of fitness, and of particular use to mature ladies as there are no cycling or running machines.

Every lady that joins Physiques and Shapes is fully assessed which includes blood pressure monitoring, body mass index, hip to waist ratio, and so on. These measurements are regularly checked so that you can see real improvement.

Instructor Tess Taylor, has over fifteen years experience in the field of power-assisted exercise and is Physiques and Shapes Health Club's resident instructor. A full work out on the six different chairs takes only 30 minutes each working a different part of the body. A bonus ladies can currently benefit from an extra 10 minutes of toning on top of this free on their two traditional toning tables. Call Tess today for a quick chat about how these revolutionary exercise systems can help you lose inches, tone up and look fabulous for summer.

Don't forget that you can also find a traditional ladies only gym at the Health Club with all of the essential work out machines and flat screen televisions.

Dorset's premier quality fireplace design company

Stone's Fireplaces is a family run business established in 1876, and Dorset's premier fireplace design company. They can accommodate the needs of all homeowners, and are experts in installation in listed buildings, farmhouses and cottages.

Stone's Fireplaces is a traditional company and is dedicated to offering first class service. They specialise in the supply and installation of woodburning and multifuel stoves, gas fires and fireplaces. Stone's Masonry division create and manufacture beautiful bespoke natural stone fireplaces. All work is carried out by their own in-house expert team of installers.

A new addition to their professional services is Stone's Chimney Solutions, which is a full chimney sweeping and maintenance service. The aim is to ensure their clients are safe, using their fires and stoves correctly, using the correct fuels and maintaining their investment. Stone's work to the highest standards and are approved HETAS engineers and members of NACS (National Association of Chimney Sweeps).

This is all important as most insurance companies will no longer pay out for claims unless there is evidence that the chimney has been professionally swept and a valid and current certificate of sweeping has been issued.

Call Stone's today for a quality and professional service that you will be happy to recommend to friends.

The Hamsters are let out of their cage one last time

THOSE rocking' rodents The Hamsters come to Lyme Regis one last time on Friday, April 22nd, playing their final show in the town as part of their 25th year and Farewell Tour.

The show will be part of the 'Legends Return...' series and sees the band, who've played over 4,000 concerts in their two and a half decades, play at the Woodmead Halls.

Although they usually play their own brand of rootsy rock, blues and Americana, they'll be performing two sets of Jimi Hendrix and ZZ Top material, for which they are widely regarded as the UK's leading interpreters, at the Lyme Regis show.

Tickets £14 on the door, or £12 in advance from Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre (01297 442138); Serendip Books, Broad Street; or by PayPal - visit www.lymeregis.tv/legends.html.

FAREWELL | The Hamsters

Irish folk star Heidi Talbot
for Electric Palace Show

IRISH folk star Heidi Talbot's voice is both awestruck and tender and is gaining her recognition as rapidly becoming a key figure in the flourishing and vibrant folk scene. With critics mooring comparisons as diverse as Björk, Enya, Linda Ronstadt, Norah Jones and Kirsty MacColl, Talbot is receiving 5 star reviews nationwide.

Talbot's album 'In Love and Light' was produced by Eddi Reader (Fairground Attraction) and collaborator Boo Hewerdine and received widespread radio airplay and has been followed by two years' solid gigging, both as headline act and sought-after special guest.

After five years earning her folk spurs fronting Cherish The Ladies, the young Irish singer is primed and starting to enjoy major crossover success. Catch her playing live with John McCusker and Ian Carr at the Electric Palace on Sunday, April 24th. Tickets are on sale for £10.50 (members) or £12.50 (standard) at Bridport Tourist Information Centre 01308 424901. Doors open 7.30pm.

Host turns headliner for Electric Comedy

Craig Campbell brings his hilarious stand-up show to Bridport

INTERNATIONALLY acclaimed stand-up Craig Campbell brings his debut sell-out tour to the Electric Palace on Thursday, May 5th. As the resident host of Electric Comedy at the venue, which has seen everyone from Russell Howard to Lee Mack to Milton Jones grace the stage, Craig certainly knows how to settle the room into fits of hilarity.

Craig has just completed a huge 120 date tour of the country's biggest theatres with his good friend Frankie Boyle and has been seen raising the roof on the last series of Michael McIntyre's Comedy Roadshow (BBC ONE) & Russell Howard's

Good News (BBC THREE). Craig's tour now heads to his second home of Bridport for an unmissable evening of his trademark inventive storytelling.

Craig's a known 'out-door adventurer' of comedy; stand up oddly is one of the few things he does inside. Typically dressed in his beloved 'I love cheese' t-shirt (synthetic and a bit wiffy) and a khaki (undercover police concealment) shorts number, sometimes substituted for leather trousers, the strapping ex-athlete commands his stages with vigor. As an instinctive entertainer, Craig brings his characteristic wit, talkative charm and animated manner to stories about his travels; befriending the audience with accents and boisterous reenactments.

Craig started comedy

at a young age and was soon handpicked by Jim Carrey to appear alongside him on both his TV Show (Jim Carrey Live) and to support him on tour before he packed his bags and came to the UK before settling in Devon. Craig is also an Edinburgh Fringe favourite, having performed many runs to both critical and box office success and being one of the few chosen to perform at the prestigious 'Best of the Fringe' for HBO in New York.

Join Craig for this simply unmissable evening at the beautiful Electric Palace. Tickets are on sale now. The show takes place on Thursday May 5th at the Electric Palace, Bridport. Tickets cost £10.50 and are available from the box office on 01308 424 901 or in person at Bridport Tourist Information Centre.

New Hardy Players dramatised
reading of The London Hermit

THE New Hardy Players have built up an enviable reputation for the performance of plays based on the works of Thomas Hardy. Now members of the company are mounting a rehearsed reading of an earlier play, The London Hermit or Rambles in Dorsetshire by the acclaimed eighteenth century dramatist John O'Keefe.

The London Hermit is set in Regency Lulworth. Humphrey Whimpy has made his fortune in the East Indies, and has set himself up in a mansion complete with ornamental pleasure gardens and statuary. Young Pranks is a fast-living young buck addicted to wine, women, song and horse-racing. To escape his creditors he takes on the post as resident Hermit in Whimpy's garden grotto... The play is a delight, full of wit, wry observation and local references.

In a rehearsed reading scripts are used, but the scenes are partly dramatised and the actors use some costume and props; and with the addition of live music and song the evening promises to be very lively. The performance is directed by Tim Laycock, who also directed last year's New Hardy production of The Distracted Preacher.

The rehearsed reading of The London Hermit takes place at Dorset County Museum on Friday, April 29th at 7.30pm as one of the events linked to the highly successful 'Georgian Faces' exhibition. Tickets cost £10 (including a glass of wine) and are available from Museum reception. For more information visit the museum website on www.dorsetcountymuseum.org.

Charity book signing

DAVID Bourne will be holding a charity book signing at Waterstone's bookshops in Bournemouth and Dorchester to support Weldmar Hospicecare Trust by signing his two novels, 'The Three Camels' and 'The Camel of Soloma'.

David will be attending Waterstone's Bookshop in Bournemouth Arcade on Wednesday, April 20th and at South Street, Dorchester on Saturday, April 23rd, both signing events will take place between 11am and 3pm.

His first book sold out within the year and was highly commended by reviewers. The 'Camel of Soloma' combines mystery & suspense with wonderful portrayals of a Cornish environment that is both ancient & familiar. Only the bonds of love & friendship hold the characters together - until a single, desperate message brings a summons from the past. A compelling drama, as events move towards their final, cataclysmic conclusion.

A CARGO OF MEMORIES

*Have you been to faraway places,
Do you know of a Paradise Isle?
Have you travelled to view the Grand Canyon
Or watch icy glaciers slide?
Have you sailed past the Rock of Gibraltar?
Or been to the Caspian Sea?
Have you toured all the way to Tobago
Or seen the wild life at Tuli?*

*Have you felt the dry heat of the desert?
Or sensed the romance of the Nile?
Have you trekked in the Blue Ridge Mountains
On the Appalachian Trail?*

*Did your journey unfold like the pages
Of a bright coloured magazine?
Were scents and sensations unlocked in a trice,
By connection, or just by a dream?*

*Was bewilderment your true companion
Or did you feel daring and free?
Does your mind roam in flights of fancy
With a cargo of memory?*

THE above poem was written by Dorchester reader, Kay Ennals, who dedicated it to her late husband, Maurice. Back in the sixties Maurice Ennals was the pioneer of local radio as the founding manager of Radio Leicester and later of Radio Solent. When he died in Dorchester in 2002, he had been married to Kay for 53 years.

Last week I was writing about a poem whose origins had become blurred. Here is another. Written in 1904 by a lady from Kansas named Bessie Anderson Stanley, it was later misattributed to both Robert Louis Stevenson and Ralph Waldo Emerson.

SUCCESS

*That person is a success
Who has lived well, laughed often and loved much;
who has gained the respect of intelligent people and the love of children;
who has filled his niche
and accomplished his task;
who leaves the world better than he found it,
whether by an improved poppy,
a perfect poem, or a rescued soul;
who never lacked appreciation of earth's beauty
or failed to express it;
who looked for the best in others and gave the best that he had.*

Christopher Reid's wife, Lucinda, died of cancer in 2005. "A Scattering" is the title of this Hong Kong-born British poet's tribute to her that won the Costa Book of the Year prize for 2009. This is one of the poems from the collection, which was described by Sandra Howard as 'The most moving tribute to a wife that any husband could pen.'

LATE

Late home one night, I found she was not yet home herself.

*So I got into bed and waited under my blanket mound,
until I heard her come in and hurry upstairs.
My back was to the door.
Without turning round,
I greeted her, but my voice made only a hollow, parch-throated k-, k-, k- sound,
which I could not convert into words and which, anyway, lacked the force to carry.
Nonplussed, but not distraught,
I listened to her undress,
then sidle along the far side of our bed and lift the covers.
Of course, I'd forgotten she'd died.
Adjusting my arm for the usual
Cuddle and caress,
I felt mattress and bedboards
welcome her weight
as she rolled and settled towards me,
but, before I caught her,
it was already too late and she'd wisped clean away.*

CELEBRATE ST GEORGE'S DAY WITH THE LYME REGIS TOWN BAND!

LYME Regis Town Band is set to repeat its successful St George's Day concert, which this year falls on Easter Saturday, April 23rd. Those present last year enjoyed a varied programme for band and audience, including a medley of English songs such as the nostalgic 'White Cliffs of Dover' and 'There'll always be an England.'

Richard Horobin returns to comperé this year's concert, which will once more provide music for all tastes, with the band showcasing the best of music in celebration of England's patron saint. The stirring opening fanfare and national anthem will set the scene and their programme will include music from the Beatles and Andrew Lloyd Webber.

Audience participation will again be an important ingredient and the sing-along will be led by Seaton's Mary Bowles. At the grand finale, the ever-popular 'Land of Hope and Glory' will give the audience a final opportunity to wave their flags of St George, re-creating for many the emotional atmosphere of the 'Last Night of the Proms'.

This concert will feature the debut of the Training Band, which was set up at the beginning of this year. It provides group tuition for beginners of all ages and they have been practising hard, under the direction of Nikki Herbert.

Band Secretary Gilly Warr, commenting on the forthcoming concert said, 'St George's Day falls not only on Easter Saturday, but a just few days before the Royal Wedding. So we hope that both residents and visitors will join us, not only to celebrate St George, but to get themselves into celebratory mood for William and Kate's big day'.

The concert begins at 7.30 pm at the Woodmead Halls and tickets can be purchased on the door. However, to avoid disappointment, book them in advance from Uplyme Post Office, Lyme Regis TIC, Primary Colours in Lyme Regis, any band member or by telephoning 01297 442719. Tickets from the band's cancelled Christmas concert may be used for this event.

PLAYWRIGHT PETER TO PERFORM SERIES OF SHORT PLAYS

SHORT Shifts is embarking on a European tour to promote the incredible writing talents of playwright Peter Oswald.

Peter is joined by international actress Josephine Larsen, to perform a series of his Short Plays, back to back. Each play lasts anything from 1 - 15 minutes. Multi instrumentalist, Martin Holland, accompanies them as the third voice, weaving a multi dimensional backdrop with his compositions and atmospheric sound landscapes.

Peter's plays represent a re-discovery of the complexity of the human spirit in all its manifestations of comedy, tragedy, farce, surrealism, the grotesque and the very real. Short Shifts invite audiences on a spell-binding journey into 'marriage' and the ancient relationship between the masculine and the feminine.

Attention Seekers Production of Short Shifts comes to the Marine Theatre on Saturday, April 16th from 8pm. Tickets cost £12/£10 and are available by

THIS WEEK'S
NEW RELEASESRED RIDING HOOD <sup>12A</sup>

A dark fantasy version of the classic Red Riding Hood tale stars Amanda Seyfried, Gary Oldman and Shiloh Fernandez.

Valerie (Seyfried) is a beautiful young woman torn between two men. She is in love with a brooding outsider, Peter (Fernandez), but her parents have arranged for her to marry the wealthy Henry (Max Irons). Unwilling to lose each other, Valerie and Peter are planning to run away together when they learn that Valerie's older sister has been killed by the werewolf that prowls the dark forest surrounding their village. For years, the people have maintained an uneasy truce with the beast, offering the creature a monthly animal sacrifice. But under a blood red moon, the wolf has upped the stakes by taking a human life. Hungry for revenge, the people call on famed werewolf hunter, Father Solomon (Oldman), to help them kill the wolf. But Solomon's arrival brings unintended consequences as he warns that the wolf, who takes human form by day, could be any one of them. As the death toll rises with each moon...

SCREAM 4M <sup>15</sup>

The fourth installment in the Scream series hits the big screen this week. Ten years have passed, and Sidney Prescott, now the author of a self-help book, returns home to Woodsboro on the last stop of her book tour. There she reconnects with Sheriff Dewey and Gale, who are now married, as well as her cousin Jill and her Aunt Kate. Unfortunately, Sidney's appearance also brings about the return of Ghostface, putting Sidney, Gale, and Dewey, along with Jill, her friends, and the whole town of Woodsboro in danger.

WINNIE THE POOH <sup>U</sup>

Walt Disney's classically animated Winnie The Pooh is the first of the Pooh films since 1977 to base the stories on the original books. Featuring all the well-loved characters including Eeyore, Tigger and Piglet, the film will revolve around Pooh himself, but will also see Eeyore trying to find his tail and his friends trying different replacements, and another sequence based on a story from The House at Pooh Corner where Pooh and friends search for a creature called a "Backson".

THE Shave Cross Inn is no ordinary village pub. The Shave Cross House Hotel is a newly built Dorset flint stone building with beautiful stone floors and oak beams constructed in the same tradition as the 700 year old Inn which was once a busy stop off point for pilgrims and monastic visitors (who had their tonsures trimmed as a mark of respect while staying).

This luxury boutique accommodation, is set in the grounds of the Famous and popular Shave Cross Inn, with its unique Shavers Restaurant which has been serving British, Authentic Caribbean and International Cuisine by its two chefs for the past 6 years and has been awarded many accolades.

The pub has also won two CAMRA Pub of the Year awards during this period for its real ales and ciders, and features in Alastair Sawday's Special places Pubs and inns of England and Wales as being in the top ten best summer gardens.

This month: THE SHAVERS RESTAURANT

AT THE SHAVES CROSS INN

ALL the meals on our fine dining Menu are made fresh to order, please be patient especially during high season and weekends, if you want fast food try McDonald's!

We have adapted all our recipes from dishes found on our travels around the world and especially from the Caribbean of which Tobago has our other home and many of the ideas come from there Vatable Fiji where we were married, the Pacific Rim, Thailand and Louisiana with its hypnotic Cajun music.

We pride ourselves on using as much as possible the finest local fish meat and produce, our seasonings and spices come direct from the Caribbean and our exotic fishes come via a high class provisioner, fresh and chilled. For which we thank our suppliers please see list on rear page of menu.

If you are allergic to any food or seasonings please advise us when ordering.
Please lime, and enjoy your meal,
Roy and Mel Warburton

Very pretty detached period cottage in Netherbury

THE White Cottage is a very pretty detached period cottage situated on the edge of one West Dorset’s most sought-after villages.

The cottage is full of character features which include wooden latch doors, exposed beams, window seats and an inglenook fireplace. Believed to date back to the mid 1700s, with an extension added in 1970, the cottage has generous and flexible ground floor accommodation. The sitting room has a wonderful inglenook fireplace with original bread oven and a multi-fuel burner inset. Further to this there is a music room with French doors to the garden, a study to the rear and a useful rear lobby/workshop/potting room with door to the garden. The kitchen has a dining area and there is a ground floor bathroom/utility room. Both of the first floor bedrooms are double rooms, with the master having double aspect windows. Most of the windows are double-glazed, with a mixture of recently installed timber framed double-glazed units and some UPVC to the rear. The central heating is oil-fired.

Outside there is a driveway with parking for two vehicles and a south-east facing enclosed mature garden which surrounds the property, with the majority to the front of the cottage to enjoy the countryside views.

Accommodation includes: Entrance Hall – Sitting Room with Inglenook Fireplace – Study – Music Room – Kitchen/Breakfast Room – Ground Floor Bathroom/Utility Room – Rear Lobby/Workshop – Galleried Landing – Two Double Bedrooms – Shower Room – Mostly Double-Glazed Windows Throughout – Oil-Fired Central Heating – Driveway – Enclosed Gardens.

The asking price for The White Cottage is £380,000. To receive particulars or to arrange a viewing please contact Elder & Froy at our Beaminster office on 01308 862606. To view the full sale particulars and floor plans please go to www.elderfroy.co.uk

BRIDPORT - OFFERS INVITED

BRIDGMAN & Speak Estate Agents are delighted to be instructed to market this well presented 2 bedroom, terraced house.

The property has a refurbished bathroom and new carpets throughout. A good sized living room/diner is complimented with a fitted kitchen, whilst the kitchen is fully functional, it would benefit from being updated in the next couple of years.

The property also benefits from a larger than average garden for this type of property and it has a pedestrian gate providing rear access. A single garage is included in the sale, which has allocated parking for two cars in front of the metal up and over door.

This property would make an ideal first purchase for a young couple starting out or equally, for a buy to let investor looking to get a regular monthly return from a lump sum investment. With no shortage of potential tenants, this property would be easy to let and keep let, providing a steady, above average return with the potential to get some additional capital growth over the medium to long term.

For more information please call Bridgman & Speak Estate Agents on 01308 888111.

CHARMOUTH - £310,000

THIS property is a charming, end-of-terrace, period cottage dating back to the early 1800s. The cottage has a rendered exterior under a newly thatched roof and retains many character features. The cottage has been the subject of much careful sustained improvements over recent years and now offers an up to date character home. The property benefits from new gas combi boiler (installed 2010). UPVC double glazing installed 2009. Re-thatched roof 2008. Mains smoke detectors to all areas.

The cottage has solid wood flooring, a feature fireplace, exposed beams and wooden latch doors. The enclosed private garden is a lovely additional feature. This pretty house deserves to be viewed to fully appreciate the accommodation fully.

Accommodation comprises: lounge with living flame gas fire, dining room with stone fireplace with living flame gas fire, kitchen with built-in oven, hob and hood, ground floor bathroom with walk-in shower, first floor - three bedrooms, cloakroom, enclosed rear garden, summerhouse, upvc dg and gch.

For more information please call Fortnam Smith & Banwell in Charmouth Tel 01297 560945.

WEYMOUTH - £215,000 LEASEHOLD

AN almost new Marina side apartment in a prestigious block in the coastal town of Weymouth. 150 yards from Railway station and all amenities.

The property comprises a second floor apartment being presented in exceptional condition, fully equipped and furnished if required. Features include, a living room having a balcony with views extending to the Marina, distant hills and over the town, a modern kitchen with fitted appliances and bathroom with high quality fittings, master bedroom with ensuite shower room, door entry system linked to the external door.

The accommodation comprises master bedroom ensuite, a further bedroom, living room, reception hall, bathroom, kitchen, lift, balcony, electric heating, double glazing, garage, and exceptional harbour views.

For more information or to book a viewing please contact Holloway Estate Agents on 01308 422121 or visit our website www.e-holloway.co.uk

UPLYME - £425,000

THIS very spacious and unusual detached chalet style house has been substantially extended and improved under the current ownership and now provides a lovely family home with a large garden and beautiful views.

Situated along Whalley Lane, the property is ideally positioned for local Schools and close to the village centre.

The accommodation comprises, two ground floor bedrooms, one en suite, family bathroom, a large first floor room which is bedroom, hobby and study space (and has to be seen to be fully understood), L shaped kitchen/dining/living room, sitting room, beautiful conservatory, utility room and cloakroom. The layout allows for versatility of use and all main reception rooms are situated to make the most of the fabulous views. There is sufficient additional loft space to add further to the accommodation if desired (subj. to PP).

Outside, to the front is ample parking for several vehicles and a recently built large timber workshop / garage. The large gardens lie mainly to the rear and form an important feature to the property providing lots of space for play, planting and vegetable growing and even keeping chickens (if you wish).

This is a property that ticks lots of boxes, so be quick or you'll miss it!

Guide price £425,000. Please call Gordon and Rumsby on 01460 30888 for more information or to book a viewing.

DAISY HUTCHINGS CUP - Semi-Final

Combe A 0 Beaminster Res 4

BEAMINSTER Reserves are through to their first ever Daisy Hutchings Cup Final after thrashing third division mid-tablers Combe A 4-0 at Slades Cross.After a goalless first-half Richie Middleton put the Rainbows ahead. Top scorer Josh Hunter added the second, his 18th of the campaign, and further strikes from Ross Picketts and Chris Park rounded things off. Beaminster's opponents in the Final will be either Shepton Beauchamp or South Petherton Reserves who edged past division three title favourites Crew-kerne Reserves 2-1 at Lightgate Lane.

PREMIER

Barrington 1 Farway Utd 2

GOALS from Ben Williams and Bradley
King earned Farway United all three points from their trip to Shelway Lane.

Beaminster 2 South Petherton 1

"THE best half of football we have played all season" was Beaminster manager Sean Annetts' assessment of the first 45 minutes of Saturday's visit by title favourites South Petherton."It was as if we threw off the shackles after the midweek defeat by Merriott, we played without fear and really enjoyed ourselves" he continued.The Rainbows fine start was highlighted by two goals which saw them head into the half-time interval clearly on top.Dean Newman opened the scoring with a crisp 20-yard shot that flew into the bottom corner for his 14th goal of the season. Ben Ward headed home the second and there was still time for Newman to squander a golden chance to add a third.Petherton came out for the second-half with a changed formation to attempt to disrupt the hosts' superiority. Influential playmaker Jon Hayter was pushed into a more advanced role and Pethy began to seize the initiative.Danny Rendall pulled one back but Beaminster held on to bag an impressive three points and end the visitors' 22-game unbeaten league run - which coincidentally started after they had been beaten by the same score line in last season's corresponding fixture.Some bad news for Beaminster was the sight of both James Ridd and influential midfielder Dave Penn being helped off with ankle injuries.Both are now thought to be doubtful starters in tomorrow's big Dorset Intermediate Cup Final against Lyme Regis at Bridport (7.45pm ko).

Ilminster Res 1 Lyme Regis 3

THERE was a big cheer at the Davey Fort when news filtered through of Beamster's victory.The Seasideers are now in with a sniff of retaining their title but will still need to beat Petherton when the teams go head-to-head at the Fort and hope that Pethy drop points against either Misterton, Far-way or Barrington.On Saturday, Lyme afforded the luxury of resting midfielders Adam Caddy and Mark Bailey and still had far too much in the tank for a struggling Ilminster Reserves side who have now lost five on the spin.Dom Rowe opened the scoring with a far post header back across the 'keeper after a pinpoint cross from Rob Thomson.

Thomson added the second, his 10th of the season, with a long range effort that Blues' gloveman made a hash of and dropped over the line.The hosts did pull one back but Lyme goalkeeper had an otherwise quiet afternoon - and it was no surprise when Joe Bond netted a third two minutes from time.

Merriott Rovers 1 Perry Street 5

DOUBLE from Ben Stevens and Jay Bailey have given Perry Street hopes of Premier Division survival a huge boost following an impressive 5-1 win at Merriott Rovers.Chris Warry netted the Mothers' other goal with Craig Fall bagging the Rovers' consolation early on.

DIVISION ONE

Lyme Regis Res 4 Norton Ath 3

Lyme Regis Reserves recovered from going behind to an early Colin Fuoco goal to extend their unbeaten league run to six games.Ally Rattenbury levelled with a stunning free-kick and Luke Street put the Seasideers' noses in front at the break.Fuoco bagged his second soon after the restart but Fred Thomson restored the slender advantage.Back came the plucky visitors again - this time Chris Mapperton finding the net.OPENER: Ben Ward scored Beaminster first in the 2-1 win over Champions elect South Petherton.ON TARGET: Lyme Regis' Dom Rowe scored for the second game in a succession in the win over Ilminster.HALF-CENTURY: Steve Symonds scored his 50th goal for Netherbury in the 1-0 win over Ilminster Colts.

was outstanding at centre-back.

DIVISION FOUR

Ilminster A 0 Waytown Hounds 7

WAYTOWN Hounds put a magnificent seven past Ilminster to record their biggest ever away league win.Man-of-the-Match Danny Dunford led the goal parade with a hat-trick. James Loveridge (2), Matt Read and Mike Whitbread, with a scorcher, scored the other goals.

Fowler's double gives Terras' hope

Cards don't fall for Magpies

WOKING 2 DORCHESTER TOWN 1

Blue Square South, Tuesday - April 5th. Att: 1028

A FREAK goal condemned Dorchester to defeat at the Kingfield Stadium last week when Doug Bergqvist's clearance hit Woking's Kyle Taylor on the knee and looped beyond a startled Dan Thomas in the Magpies goal from 15 yards.

The unlucky strike came only two minutes after Steve Devlin had pulled the Magpies level from the penalty spot, after Adam Doyle had put the Cards in front four minutes before the interval.

With Dorchester looking for points to stay away clear of relegation, and Woking needing them to keep them in the hunt of a play-off spot, it was always going to be a tight game.

Woking had a good shout for an early penalty when Craig Dobson's low corner appeared to hit Kyle Critchell on the lower arm before he hacked it away for another corner, but the referee ignored the appeals.

Dorchester's best effort in the first half came after Aswad Thomas had pulled down Devlin as he tried to turn him. Gary Bowles flicked on the resulting free kick, but his header looped just over the crossbar. A poor clearance from Critchell gave Andy Burgess a shot on goal but Thomas did well to push away his volley from the edge of the box.

The Cards went ahead on 41 minutes. Taylor chased back to cut out a ball just in the Magpies half, but as he ran at the visiting defence he was hacked down by James Coulters who received a yellow card. Burgess's free kick found Doyle moving in from the right to head unchallenged beyond Thomas into the opposite corner.

The Magpies got back into the game four minutes after the break when Reece Connolly robbed Doyle as he tried to shepherd the ball behind. The Aldershot loanee played the ball into Ryan Moss, but as he went for the return was tripped by Adam Ricketts. Devlin made no mistake from the spot driving it low into the keeper's left hand corner.

After Lyle's goal Woking dominated for a few minutes, but Dorchester got back in the game and Connolly was unlucky as he tried to shrug off two defenders to a bouncing ball and put his lob just over the top.

Moss then had a good chance from 12 yards as the ball rebounded to him but volleyed just wide, before Connolly's low drive had Andy Little scampering, and Devlin then headed just over the angle of the goalframe.

Just after, Little dropped the ball under pressure from Connolly but Jermy skied the ball over from 10 yards, before the Magpies skipper had a good shout for a penalty turned down as he was flattened by Nathan Koranteng just inside the box whilst Connolly had one final chance, but his lob over Little from a through ball just slipped wide of the post.

The Cards started the second half poorly, conceding an early equaliser, and this seemed to set the tone for a generally listless, nervous and unconvincing 45 minutes in which the ball spent a good deal of time in the Woking half.

Subsequently the main points of interest for Woking fans came from the continuing officiating comedy of errors as the linesman dropped his flag twice and the referee had a running argument with Magpies' keeper Dan Thomas, who persisted, for reasons best known to himself, in trying to pinch a couple of inches at each goal-kick.

The keeper was warmly, if ironically, applauded by Woking fans when, eventually, he realised that it might be better to start by keeping it within the 'D' - but rather spoiled it by falling over after he'd kicked the ball!

Briefly, Woking looked as though they might make the game safe as they pressed for a third goal. Dobson's cross-cum-shot had the keeper scampering to cover his far post and Taylor had another couple of well-struck efforts but both were wide. Another exciting Dobson run enabled Hammond to play in Walker but he was blocked for a corner.

But the tide soon turned in the visitors' favour as they seemed to find in increasingly easy to create openings. 'Pinball' in the Woking box led to a shot going wide and then a ball over Doyle forced Little into a fine save, followed by a bad miss as a header was off target. Another bizarre refereeing decision almost produced the equaliser as Little was flattened as he gathered a long ball, but, fortunately, the ensuing shot was over the bar.

Woking responded with a couple of attacks, Taylor firing wide, and Dobson over-running the ball after combining well with Hammond from a break out of defence. But the best chance, with about five minutes to go, fell to substitute Nathan Koranteng, who was unable to finish in a one-on-one with the keeper.

However, in the closing stages it was more a matter of hanging on anxiously as the visitors spurned another great chance. A Woking attack broke down. The ball was played swiftly over Doyle and into an attacker's path. He put it over Little but wide. Cards fans breathed again.

So, the Cards got the win they needed but they will certainly have to play better than they did in the second-half if they are to gain that much-coveted play-off place.

Magpies grind their way towards safety

DORCHESTER TOWN 0 LEWES 0

Blue Square South - Att: 438

NEITHER side could afford to lose this match for differing reasons, nor did it look like either side wanted to win it as both teams squandered opportunities to take all three points.

A win for Dorchester Town would have just about ensured Blue Square South status for next season providing all the sides below them didn't finish with a flourish, whilst Lewes, who appeared cut adrift halfway through the campaign but have made a spirited effort in recent weeks, needed a win to keep the recovery going after taking nineteen points from their previous ten matches and give themselves a chance of escape.

On a hard pitch in glorious sunshine, neither side found it easy to string too many passes together but both created chances and had to thank their goalkeepers for keeping the game goalless.

Manager Ashley Vickers started with the same team that were unlucky not to bring a point home from Woking midweek.

Ryan Moss had the first chance after six minutes when he headed just wide at the far post from Steve Devlin's corner, before the midfielder drove his fierce shot from 10 yards straight at Rooks keeper Chris Winterton who palmed it away after a sweeping Magpies move.

AFC Bournemouth loanee Mitchell Nelson who chose the Sussex side in preference to Dorchester last week because of location, worried the home defence with his long throw-in's and keeper Dan Thomas was forced to save low at his near post after Chris Breach got in front of Doug Bergqvist from one of them.

Dorchester had problems dealing with Rooks striker Andy Hutchinson's speed, but unfortunately having put it to good use; he twice spurned excellent opportunities to put the visitors ahead.

On 19 minutes he outstripped Nathan Walker following a long punt upfield, but as Thomas narrowed the angle he tried to flick the ball past him with the outside of his right foot and it went well wide of the far post.

Dorchester slowly gained the ascendancy and Walker sent a looping header just over the bar from 10 yards from Reece Connolly's headed flick-on, before Gary Bowles was unlucky having thumped the upright with a header, when his follow up volley through a bunch of defenders hit the prostrate Winterton's outstretched leg and deflected over the crossbar.

Then Jamie Coulters perhaps might have done better when he was put through by Connolly but was foiled by the Rooks keeper who blocked his shot.

The midfielder quickly recovered the ball and chipped it beyond Winterton only for Breach to head off the line ahead of the arriving Moss.

A similar situation at the other end on the stroke of halftime saw Thomas brilliantly save Gary Noel's close range volley, but when the ball looped in the air, Hutchinson quickly swooped, but somehow headed it over the bar in front of an empty goal.

The second half was much the same as the first without so many chances created. Jamie Symes, who had an excellent match after replacing Berg soon after the break was soon involved; a desperate tackle from Pat O'Connor deflecting his shot for a corner. Then Coulters blazed wildly over the top from 12 yards after Mark Jermy had cleverly dummed over the ball.

At the other end another long Nelson throw saw the industrious David Wheeler flick the ball into the path of Noel, but Thomas was quickly out to brilliantly block a certain goal.

There followed a period of midfield play with neither side appearing capable of unlocking the others' defence.

Sub Chris Flood put Moss in who scuffed his shot before a poor Breach header saw Symes drive just the wrong side of the upright. The unmarked Walker then failed to get his head on Devlin's corner.

At the other end Neil Martin who settled down after a couple of early errors to have an excellent game, produced a superb tackle to block Wheeler.

Lewes responded with Nelson shooting wide from a good position before missing the target with a header.

With time running out Devlin released Flood for a run on goal, but he overran the ball and Winterton smothered his effort.

The Magpies will be disappointed that they didn't take the opportunity to have virtually sealed safety, but at least a draw means Lewes have not narrowed the gap on them.

TIVERTON TOWN 0 WEYMOUTH 4

Zamaretto Premier - att: 472

MANAGER Martyn Rogers would have left Ladysmead on Saturday with a tinge of sadness that victory has maybe all but sealed his former club fate, but also relief that his current side Weymouth now have a chance of avoiding relegation from the Zamaretto Premier Division.

Skipper Mike Fowler's brace helped his side move out of the relegation zone and with Bedford Town now only three points ahead, drags them back into what must surely now make it a battle of three from five clubs.

Having lost heavily to Bedford earlier in the week, it was imperative the Terras won this encounter, and Ben Gerring almost gave them the lead but his header was cleared off the line.

They thought they had taken the lead on 35 minutes but Warren Byerley was adjudged to have handled in the process of converting Jamie Mudge's corner. However they scored a minute later with a fierce left footed shot from Rob Wooleaston from the edge of the box.

Fowler scored his first in the last minute of the first half when he beat Tivvy keeper Ryan Draper with a low header from Mudge's corner to double the Terras advantage.

Tiverton came out fighting after the break but James Nortei, after a nervous game at Bedford, showed his mettle to keep them afloat before Fowler killed off their chances with a second goal when he headed home Lewis Tasker's cross from close range after 74 minutes.

The rout was completed just on full-time when sub Matt Groves cut the ball back for Gerring to volley beyond Draper from six yards.

Terras suffer painful defeat

BEDFORD TOWN 4 WEYMOUTH 1

Zamaretto Premier - Tuesday, Att: 192

WEYMOUTH suffered a painful defeat at fellow relegation strugglers Bedford Town last Tuesday when after taking a second minute lead they pressed the self destruct button with a chapter of errors which makes their climb to safety now even more difficult.

A goal up at the interval, Bedford took advantage of two lapses of concentration in a four minute period soon after the restart from which they never looked back.

The Eagles coming off the back of 6-1 thrashing by Cirencester three days earlier were dealt another blow when Warren Byerley steered home Stephen Reed's free kick at the far post after just two minutes. New skipper Mike Fowler might have doubled the lead soon after but he blazed over.

Bedford picked their game up after this without really troubling the Terras defence. However four minutes into the second half Weymouth keeper James Nortei tried to shepherd the ball out for a goal kick from the corner of his penalty area, but when Jamie Cole put him under pressure he fouled him.

Cole quickly took the free-kick before Nortei the Weymouth defence could respond and Ian Draycott put the ball into an unguarded net.

If they hadn't learned their lesson from that, Weymouth repeated the error four minutes later when Lewis Tasker tried to run the ball out of play on the touchline, but Tom Danton robbed him before playing in Josh Sozzo who beat Nortei with a shot from 15-yards.

Bedford were now in the ascendancy, and although Fowler had an effort saved by Eagles keeper Ian Brown, it was the hosts that scored twice more to round off a disappointing night for the Terras.

Craig Daniel helped himself to the third on 75 minutes, before Nortei allowed Stuart Wall's long-range shot to slip through his fingers.

Bees turn screw on their rivals

MELKSHAM TOWN 2 BRIDPORT 3

Toolstation Division One - Att: 102

BRIDPORT, satisfied at having maintained the pressure at the top of the Toolstation Western League Division One table with a hard fought win to complete a quick double over Melksham Town, were rewarded when they found that both Oldland Abbotonians and Cadbury Heath had dropped points, allowing the Bees a slight lead in their quest for promotion.

Saturday's match was by no means going to be easy having just edged the reverse fixture two weeks earlier with a Matt Condliffe goal, but Bridport made a good start, and took control of the game with two goals in the first half hour.

Dan Wise struck early on from the penalty spot. His long free-kick from near the halfway line found Chris Clarke, whose header was handled by Town's skipper Dave Thompson, and the midfielder tucked the ball away to keeper Nick Evans' left from the spot.

Wise and Clarke combined on the half hour for Sam Charles to double Bridport's lead. Wise providing another inch perfect ball from a long 35-yard cross to Clarke whose header was brilliantly parried by Evans, but Charles reacted quickest to tuck home from close range.

However Melksham boast one of the league's deadliest strikers in Gary Higdon, and he reduced the deficit just on half-time with a far post header from Simon Gillat's corner.

Sam Filkins tipped Nick Ridout's shot around for a corner right after the interval, but Bridport extended their lead almost immediately when Condliffe scored his second goal against the Wiltshire side following good approach work between Ryan Dovell, who had just come on having arrived late due to work, Clarke and Charles who rolled the ball into the path of the overlapping wing back to cleverly dink the ball over Evans.

Evans then saved superbly from Charles to prevent Melksham going further behind, before Higdon hit the post from 22-yards with Filkins beaten.

However the hosts did pull a goal back with 15 minutes left when Ian Jeffrey scored from 10-yards after Ryan Hayter's excellent block from Ridout had rebounded to him.

This gave the home side impetus, and they put the Bees defence in which Hayter and Shane Evans both played well, under late pressure, but they held on to claim all three points.

Their cause was not helped when ten minutes from time Sayeed Ibrahim, who was making his Melksham home debut and having come on as a substitute barely 15 minutes earlier, was red carded for foul language to the referee.

The win puts the Bees four points ahead of Cadbury Heath with a game in hand, and five points clear of Oldlands who have a game in hand on Bridport.

Bees cruise into the top half

BRIDPORT RESERVES 4 CRANBORNE 1

BRIDPORT Reserves moved into the top half of the Magna Dorset Premier League with their third consecutive win against a competitive Cranborne side that belied their lowly position.

Joint manager Steve Crabb said: "It was a good team performance, but we looked good particularly attacking wise and should have had a lot more goals. They were no pushover, but we deserved our win."

Bridport opened the scoring on ten minutes when a good run and cross down the wing by Carl Bulman was volleyed home at the far post by Robin Jones.

Cranborne quickly equalised after keeper Jamie Fry did well to save a free kick, but Oliver Hands followed up to score off the rebound.

Ben Clarke restored the Bees advantage before halftime when he sidefooted home Jones' cut back from the bye line after a good run down the line.

It was much the same after the break with Bridport dominating their visitors whose dogged determination kept them in the game until Carl Bulman rounded off a splendid five man move with an equally splendid volley from the edge of the box.

Chris Herbst rounded off the scoring from the penalty spot after Adam Steele's shot had been handled for which the offender was red carded.

Crabb, pleased that his side had moved into the top half added: "We need to keep it going if we can. We have two tough matches coming up starting with Weymouth Reserves on Wednesday and sixth placed Holt United on Saturday which will test us that's for sure."

Crabb and Mark Lock will be able to call on Russell Legg for their match with the Terras at the Bob Lucas Stadium, as he has to sit out the first team's match at Portishead Town on Tuesday due to suspension.

Bridport Wanderers U12s 3 Ringwood Town 2

BRIDPORT Youth were raring to go in their last game of the season and showed all the skills they had learned over the season in a bright start to the match. Concentration, passing and communication were to the fore as they took the lead through Ryan Luter who beat two defenders on his way to scoring.

With strikers Ethan Williams and Sam Pinkett prominent they extended their lead when the former scored with a curling shot from the wing, but Ringwood hit back to reduce the deficit just before the interval.

Bridport continued the pressure after the break and Adam Halford and Liam Tuck missed opportunities to extend their lead, whilst the visitors were kept at bay by a strong home defence and keeper Kieran Park who made some excellent saves. Unfortunately man of the match Jed Holt received a head injury that needed stitches after the game for his endeavours.

Bridport finally scored a third with a great individual goal from Michael Hill, before Ringwood once more responded with a second.

Manager Anthony Lockwood said: "I would like to congratulate the whole team; I am very proud of them. I would also like to thank the parents, families and friends for their support of the team. I enjoy managing the boys and can't wait for next season."

WEST DORSET SWIMMING

Warriors lift first ever Novice League title

WEST Dorset Warriors Swimming Club finished a successful campaign in the Dorset Novice League by lifting the trophy for the first time.

The youngsters showed great teamwork, consistency and effort in winning all three rounds of the competition, beating Wareham Water Rats into second place with South Dorset Tornados in third and last year's winners Christchurch Seagulls fourth.

Round One started well at Rossmore Swimming Pool in Poole with the Warriors obtaining 47 personal best times.

Round Two at the same venue proved a lot tighter with Warriors just winning the round, with many hard fought races resulting in 20 personal best times.

Alex Felton, aged nine, moved up to the 10 year age group and reduced his personal best time in the 50m breaststroke by nearly five seconds.

Round Three saw the top six clubs competing head to head at Littledown Swimming Pool in Bournemouth where the Warriors were keen to retain their unbeaten run and make it a hat trick of wins.

In total 40 personal best times were recorded by the West Dorset swimmers as they stormed into a clear early lead which they built on to win the round by a large margin, and the competition trophy.

Noticeable amongst the performances at Littledown was the 25m Breaststroke where twins Hannah and Bethan Ohnstad both reduced their personal best times by over five seconds, with less than 0.5 seconds separating their new personal best times.

Congratulations go to all swimmers who competed for the Warriors including Erin Lee, Oliver Davies, Alex Felton, Erin Gowers, Olivia Cregg, Millie Kelman-Johns, Hattie Lantree and George Maslan who were making their competitive debuts in a team gala for the club.

Team Captains Charlie Hitchcock and Jess Ohnstad proudly collected the trophy, and West Dorset Warriors are now looking towards the forthcoming Junior League with confidence.

West Dorset Warriors train at both the Thomas Hardy Leisure Centre in Dorchester and Bridport Leisure Centre and also do long course training at Millfield School.

New swimmers and athletes of all levels are welcome, if you are interested please contact Janet Hewitt on 01305 266175 or visit www.westdorsetwarriors.org

Ayles is Chesil Champion

WEYMOUTH'S Mark Ayles was crowned West Bay Sea Angling Club's 39th Chesil Champ beating 86 other competitors in the recent competition held at Freshwater Beach Holiday Park.

His small eyed ray weighing 1kg 195g and a dogfish of 660g was just enough to beat Malcolm Stote's catch of two dogfish by 45g. In a close finish, local angler Dave Chidzoy took third place with two dogfish and two plaice weighing 1kg 760g.

The ray gave Ayles the Heaviest Round Fish title and the Super Pool winnings of £320.

The competition allows anglers to fish Freshwater beach, a private beach except on this occasion, in an area stretching from the Jurassic Pier at West Bay to the flag pole at West Bexington.

On a day that started sunny with an easterly wind that later veered round to south-west 3-4, 27 managed to catch some weighable fish, many of them coming from Freshwater, Cogden and West Bexington beaches, the majority being dogfish, flounder, plaice, rockling and wrasse.

Unfortunately none of the ladies caught weighable fish, so the winner drawn out of a hat was Amber Wren, whilst Jake Preston was the Top Junior. N Nidd's flounder weighing 440g won the Heaviest Flat Fish prize.

There were twenty prizes and West Bay Sea Angling Club would like to thank Freshwater Beach Holiday Park for the use of their venue and beach, The Angling Centre West Bay for donating the rod and reel and the competitors for taking part.

2012 will be the 40th annual Chesil Champs, and if anyone would like to sponsor the competition next year please contact Tiny on 07977365068.

First for Buckler with double at Fontwell

BOB Buckler achieved a career first at Fontwell on Friday when River Indus and Ready Or Not provided the Henley trainer with his first double as a trainer on the same card.

"I've had two horses win on the same day at different courses, but this is the first time I've had a double success at the same meeting."

River Indus showed what a consistent horse he is with his win in the Horses For Forces London Marathon Handicap Chase over 3½ miles. Jumping superbly he led and disputed the lead until four from home when he made a run for home and the 10/3 favourite stayed on to beat Abbey Dore by 1¼ lengths with Simon Burrough's Lavenoak Lad, which is stabled next door in Richard Barber's yard, in third place a further 27 lengths adrift.

"The distance and conditions; good ground; were ideal for him, and he jumped brilliantly. It shows what a consistent horse he is and what a good job the handicapper has done, as he is only 4lb below the weight of his last win over two years ago in December 2008, since when he has run 15 times and only had two bad races, generally finishing in the top four."

It was interesting that he was not ridden by stable jockey Nathan Sweeney but by Joshua Moore. Buckler explained: "Nathan is very light and has to carry a lot of lead to make the weight."

"The owner doesn't like to much lead under the saddle, and so Joshua who is a bigger lad gets to ride him."

Ready Or Not made the double just over an hour later when he won the Hardings Catering Handicap Chase over 2½ miles, winning by six lengths from fellow 3/1 j/f Psi.

Tracking the leaders the eight-year-old went second at the 11th fence before taking command of the race three out to win comfortably.

Buckler said: "This was only his fourth race over fences and as he learns, his jumping improves and he ran a super race. His first run at Towcester where he was pulled up was because the ground was too heavy, but on better ground he has now won twice and been second in his other race."

Power Lord was unable to make it a hat-trick in the last race of the day when he trailed home at the back in the Arundel Equine Hospital Racing Excellence 'Hands And Heels' Handicap Hurdle.

Buckler believes he was handicapped too highly after finishing third in a novices hurdle at Towcester in January, and that the handicapper may drop him a few pounds for the three poor runs since.

"It was a disappointing run but essentially he is a slow stayer, and they went too fast for him in the good ground. Softer ground and an adjustment might be the answer."

Champagne Rosie, after an encouraging fifth in the bumper at Exeter last week, will now be put out to grass for the summer.

"She was one of those that appeared not 100 per cent following the mystery illness in the yard a couple of weeks ago, but she ran quite well in a good field with a couple of good horses, and will now have the summer off. She needs to strengthen up as she is a bit small, but with two fourths and a fifth in four races shows she has potential."

Mister Matt should have made it a hat trick for Buckler on Monday when he approached the second last level with 7/5 favourite Health is Wealth in the Heart Handicap Chase at Plumpton.

Nathan Sweeney had brought the eight-year-old with a great run around the final bend to draw level, and in the words of former jump jockey now commentator Richard Pitman, 'odds-on' to win, he hit the fence hard, almost catapulting Sweeney out of the saddle as he stumbled on landing. Almost stopped in his tracks, he couldn't get enough momentum to fight back and went down by six lengths.

Buckler said: "He was travelling far the best and looked a winner all the way, but unfortunately when he hit the fence he lost momentum and in a two mile race you don't get a chance to recover. However, apart from the error he ran a very nice race."

For Sweeney it added to the disappointment of not being aboard either of the yards winners on Friday, but he did ride two winners for other trainers over the weekend.

On Saturday he rode next door neighbour Simon Burrough's Digital Media to victory by six lengths in the John Smith's 'No Nonsense Racing' Handicap Chase, and followed it up the next day at Ascot when he won on Ultravox for trainer Jeremy Scott in the David Austin Roses Juvenile Handicap Hurdle.

Meanwhile Buckler had to settle for second at Littlewood's point-to-point meeting on Sunday when Different Trades was beaten by Southwestern in the Open Race over three miles.

With only Ethiopia and possibly Ready Or Not scheduled to run at Chestow on Friday, attention turns to Auteuil in France where The Sawyer runs in the equivalent of the French Gold Cup trial.

Whilst the ground will not be as wet as Buckler had hoped with the continent enjoying the same good weather as Britain, Ralph Johnson, a French racing expert believes Buckler's horse is among the top three in the field. With prize money of £220,000 Euros, Buckler could be a rich man come Sunday evening.

Olympic venues linked by student sailing programme

YEAR 10 students from Dorset and London are combining forces this week as part of a two week adventure sail training programme on board the 62 foot gaff ketch, Morning Star of Revelation.

The students who departed from London on Saturday are expected to reach the Weymouth and Portland National Sailing Academy (WPNSA) by Sunday for the official crew change, with the ketch departing again from the Academy the following day bound for an arrival in London on Easter Monday.

Students from the Royal Manor Arts College on Portland and Kidbrooke School in Greenwich have been selected, and the voyage builds on a history of adventure sailing at the Royal Manor School which was developed through co-operation with Revive Portland and the Morning Star Trust. For the London based Kidbrooke School this is the first taste of sail training for their pupils.

The selected passage for the sail training is of particular significance due to it linking two such important iconic sporting locations in the UK.

The Morning Star of Revelation is currently sailing from the East End of London where in little under 500 days the Opening Ceremony for the Games will be held, to the WPNSA, the venue for the sailing competition at the London 2012 Olympic Games and Paralympic Games.

During the route that will take in the south coast of England before heading to the Jurassic coast off Weymouth and Portland, the crew will undergo sail training in offshore conditions.

This will be a unique experience for the school pupils and the chance to forge new friendships with children from another part of the UK.

The experience which will have a positive impact on these students has been made possible through the generous support of the Whirlwind Trust which has funded this Exchange and last year's expedition.

John Tweed, Chief Executive, WPNSA, commented: "This is a first class opportunity to link the academy with London in such a positive youth based marine training adventure."

"We are looking forward to hosting the crew change for the exchange later this week and support the development of the Dorset and London based students sailing skills."

Champions looking for another good season

MINOR County Cricket Champions Dorset are anxious to retain their title and following a hard nets training programme have already begun their build up to the 2011 season with a game against Somerset 2nd's.

Looking forward to the new campaign captain Tom Hicks said: "Winning the Minor County championship for only the second time in our history has whetted our appetite for more success. We have a squad full of youth and depth, as well as experienced players throughout the side and our aim is clear; to win the double of three-day championship and one-day trophy."

The squad has been strengthened by three new players. Tom Flowers, a top order batsman, who has played for Loughborough UCCE and Leicester 2nd's and is a schoolmaster at Clayesmore, Scott Barlow, a seamer from Bournemouth CC, who has signed from Devon CCC having moved up to Dorset last year, and Dorchester all rounder Dan Belt who was unavailable through work commitments last season.

The Dorset Under 21's side has been rebranded and will now be known as Dorset 'A', where Steve Wilson has taken over as head coach alongside Julian Shackleton, who also remains strongly involved with the 1st team.

Beside the championship matches Dorset have two matches against Friends Provident T20 teams Gloucestershire Gladiators, which will include Muttiah Muralitharan at Sherborne School on Friday May 27th (5pm start), and Hampshire Royals at Dean Court on Monday May 30th (2.30pm start). Their squad includes Dominic Cork, Shahid Afridi, and Jimmy Adams.

Dorset lost to Somerset 2nd's by six wickets in their opening friendly where Josh Lawrence top scored with 52 in a total of 210-8 in their 50 overs. A 91 fourth wicket stand between opener Barrow (52) and Merchede (90) saw Somerset home comfortably with four overs to spare.

For their match against Hampshire 2nd's at the Rose Bowl, Nursery Ground this Sunday (17th), the champions include batsmen James Park, wicketkeeper Lewis McManus (both making their Dorset debuts), all rounder Dan Belt, who was unavailable last week, and seamer Henry Turner.

They replace Nick Park (side injury), Darren Cowley and Josh Lawrence (both unavailable) and Eric Linge (rotated).

All 12 picked will play, with the fielders rotated every five overs, but only 11 will bat.

RUGBY ROUND-UP

WITH KEITH JENKIN

Bridport must win - and then hope!

PUDDLETOWN 0

SWANAGE & WAREHAM 3rd 12

A STIFFISH breeze blowing diagonally down the ground threatened to make things difficult for both sides, and it subsequently did just that.

The visitors were asked to play with it at their backs during the first period; and in fact the first few minutes belonged to them, and they spent most of it in home territory.

Puddletown defended stoutly enough against what was a large and lumpy pack of forwards, but eventually the pressure told and one of the visitors' tight five rumbled over from close range. The kick from some fifteen yards in from touch, was successful and Swanage & Wareham led 7-0 by the time the game was ten minutes old.

Puddletown settled subsequently and had their moments in attack. They tended to lose possession at inopportune moments however and were kicked back by the visitors' out-half on several occasions.

In fact, although the visitors won the territorial battle in the first half, they could not score again, and I think that the home side would have reached the break the more satisfied of the two camps.

The first few minutes of the second period were spent in the Swanage & Wareham half but no score came and, in the end a driving, rolling maul enabled the visitors to release the shackles.

They then seemed to realise that, with their weight advantage up front, they could cause the home side problems, and proceeded to do so, winning a penalty in Puddletown territory, kicking the ball to the corner and mauling the subsequent lineout over the line to touch down an unconverted try.

Puddletown, to their credit, came straight back and in fact, got over their opponents' line, only for the referee to adjudicate that the ball was not grounded.

In fact the final quarter saw the home side in the ascendancy, but their opponents included some experience in their ranks and they slowed the game down by any means, and the home side could not turn pressure into points.

The nearest they came to scoring was via the boot, but the penalty kick from the twenty two slid wide, and that seem to really sum up Puddletown's day as they were beaten by a side that knew a little more about the dark arts than they did.

WEYMOUTH 11 IVEL BARBARIANS 5

THE home side, although coming through to win well in the end, were less than impressive during the first quarter.

In fact the visitors, having stolen the ball at an early lineout, spread it wide and scored a good try which, although it remained unconverted, gave them a deserved 5-0 lead before the game was ten minutes old.

Weymouth finally roused themselves however. They got a score back via the boot of Tim Peplow and took the lead when the out half kicked a second penalty late in the half and led 6-5 at the halfway stage.

The all important score came for the home side early in the second-half. Winger Will Quick scored it when, after receiving the ball in space, he executed a creditable in and out, skinned his marker and got over. Thus encouraged, Weymouth went on to dominate the rest of the game.

Using their bench well they won the forward battle hands down and, although they did not score again, they crossed their opponents' line on at least two occasions but were unable to ground the ball.

They ended the day with a satisfying win that takes them into the division's runners-up spot, but I do not think they will retain it, for those around them have games in hand.

SALISBURY 3rd 10 WEYMOUTH 2nd 49

WEYMOUTH seconds are certainly keeping their supporters in suspense until the final game of the season.

They notched this bonus point win to close the gap on the sides above them and, while still lying in third place, are within two points of the leaders. It all makes for an interesting

Saturday to come.

SALISBURY 50 DORCHESTER 0

DORCHESTER had to be at their very best and at full strength if they were to inconvenience the stand out team of the division. They were neither, and, although they defended stoutly, they were always on the back foot against a side that had pace all over its back division.

Newsam and Jo Gower did put in good tackling stints, and the Dorchester front row of Warren, Chalker and Cottell gave as good as they got at the coal face, but really could not stem the wave of home attacks.

Salisbury scored four tries in each half and converted the majority of them.

The visitors won a paucity of good possession and, although Lee Harvey, playing in the unfamiliar out half berth, strove mightily, he found difficulty in posing an attacking threat given the quality of the ball he received.

In fact it was a pretty drab weekend overall for the Dorchester club, with their second side losing to their Salisbury counterparts 31-12, and their thirds going down 40-12 against Verwood, home advantage notwithstanding.

MARLBOROUGH 17 BRIDPORT 21

AGONISINGLY it was a case of 'too little, too late' for Bridport.

Although they came out on top in this relegation battle against the side immediately above them in the Southern Counties (South) League table, they neither notched a bonus point by scoring four tries, nor prevented the home side from acquiring one.

As it stands, Marlborough remain a couple of points clear of the Brewery Field side, with just one game left to play, and it is unlikely that next week's results will change the situation overmuch.

As to the game itself, the pitch at Marlborough has a most decided slope and Bridport had the advantage of it in the first-half. They faced the breeze but played some good rugby, scoring three tries.

Centre, Idris Croft got the first, and converted it himself before adding the extras to subsequent efforts by out half Nick Hill and Dave Cutting.

The home side did score an unconverted touchdown in reply, but overall Bridport would have been satisfied at the halfway stage.

Local knowledge came into the equation in the second period when the home side played with the slope. They scored two tries, one of which they converted, to narrow the gap, as Bridport tired.

The visitors held on for the win however, although Marlborough clinched the bonus point that will, in all probability guarantee them Southern Counties (South) rugby next season.

The writing has been on the wall for several weeks for the Bridport second side. They slid to a heavy defeat against visitors East Dorset and will play their rugby in the Dorset & Wilts League Division Three (South) next season.

PREVIEW

THE curtain comes down on the 2010/2011 local league season on Saturday and all local sides will be hard pushed to finish with a bang.

DORCHESTER entertain NORTH DORSET, a side who will end the season in the division's third place and who bested Dorchester 37-21 when the sides met back in September.

I would suggest that this encounter would likely follow the same pattern, with the visitors coming out on top after a high scoring open encounter.

BRIDPORT do still have a mathematical chance of avoiding relegation after last week's narrow win over Marlborough. They simply have to beat visitors TROWBRIDGE and hope that Marlborough lose.

I see from the records however that the earlier game played at Trowbridge resulted in a 62-3 win for the home side, and I do not see Bridport overturning that deficit although I do not believe that Trowbridge are the side they once were. I fear that relegation looms for them.

PUDDLETOWN could do with a win, for they are looking over their shoulders just a little.

I do not think they will get it at EAST DORSET however for these opponents beat them by a couple of scores back in September, and have gone on to have a good season, currently lying in the division's third place.

WEYMOUTH remain the most likely side to end the season on a high note. They travel to WIMBORNE 2nd who lie in the division's bottom place. Having said that, I see that the sides drew 17-17 back in early September. Weymouth are a better side now than they were then and I think that they will come back with a win.

As to the second sides, already relegated Bridport travel to Ellingham & Ringwood and are unlikely to return from there with too much joy; the more especially because they lost the reverse fixture by a margin of some 20 points.

Dorchester seconds however should have the beating of home side Poole, while Dorchester thirds face a bit of a toughie in North Dorset fourths.

The match of the day will be played by Weymouth seconds at home to Wimborne thirds for Weymouth have to win if they are to have a chance of promotion.

All three sides who are vying for a promotion spot face reasonable teams from the division's mid-table, and I will be watching the results with interest.

Under the posts - youth rugby round-up

Under 10s

Dorchester v Weymouth

IN a hastily arranged local derby, Weymouth U10's travelled to Dorchester to play two games in wonderful sunshine.

Although lacking key players Weymouth were able to field a full team, giving their newest players an excellent opportunity to improve on their recently gained skill's.

Dorchester 6 Weymouth 0

THE first match saw a very well organised Dorchester attack right from the whistle, who kept up the pressure throughout the first match and their better passing and quickness to gain possession saw them reap the rewards.

Weymouth regulars Ben Robertson, Scott Stallman and Marshall Miller worked tirelessly tackling and stopping the oppositions drives in midfield but were eventually overwhelmed by the continued pressure Dorchester exerted. This allied to Dorchester's fluid passing and organisation saw the host's cross the whitewash without reply.

Dorchester 3 Weymouth 0

THE second match saw the new Weymouth players step up their work rate and play more offensively.

Jack Castle made his first couple of tackles for the Seaside's and found himself in possession of the ball on more than one occasion.

Encouraged by his team mates in one run he set up James Hansford who in turn passed to Kai Glassford but again Dorchester's experience stopped his run short, but this gave the Weymouth side a boost and relief from a defensive game.

Renewed vigour slowed down the Dorchester attack halving their score rate from the first match. Although unable to score Weymouth took heart from the development of their new players, and the great improvement seen in their less experienced players.

Sam Anstey's passing and growing confidence to become involved was very evident in both matches which was only just piped though this week by Glassford who took several opportunities to run into Dorchester's half looking for glory; his hard work and effort saw him awarded man of the match.

Though beaten, the Seaside's spirit's were high at the end of the match. The newer player's will no doubt be looking to build on the performance in preparation for Weymouth's rapidly upcoming touring season, where they will be host many touring sides from all over the country, culminating in the Weymouth Festival over the May Bank Holiday weekend.

Under 12s

Swanage & Wareham 17 Weymouth 0

SWANS attacked from the kick-off and only an excellent clearance kick from Bud Glover put the Swans on the defensive.

Weymouth replied and a jinking run from Morgan Wyatt and a follow up drive from the second row forwards nearly saw them over for a try but another good clearance kick, this time from the Swans, kept the score at nil all.

The sides looked evenly matched for most of the half with both sides spreading the ball wide. Weymouth had previously found the smaller Swans front row difficult to handle, but with James Davis in as the loose head prop and Lucas Jones moving to second row Weymouth were winning the majority of the ball and if it had not been for some poor handling they could have scored at least twice in the first-half.

Swanage finally took advantage of some sloppy tackling in the middle of the park to take a seven point lead and then doubled it just before half-time from a blind side move from a five metre scrum.

The second-half was much like the first. Weymouth dominated the scrums but Imogen Parker playing at scrum-half did not receive sufficient clean ball to release the three quarters.

Tyler Craig, Jake Brown and Glen Watts made some excellent driving runs but were held up short, and in the backs Wyatt, Rory Legg and Jack Brewer defended well.

Weymouth deserved to put points on the board, and were unfortunate to concede a third try in the dying seconds from a driving maul.

INSIDE: Lyme Regis skittles & pool round-ups*Historic final set to be a cracker

TOMORROW brings the biggest cup game at Perry Street League level for 23 years when Lyme Regis lock horns with Beaminster at Bridport's St Mary's Ground with the Dorset Intermediate Cup at stake.

It's the fifth time these old rivals have met in County Cup finals but the first at Intermediate level.

Beaminster won the last encounter in the Final of the Junior Cup in 1988-89, one year previously the Seaside won 3-0 when Ellis Hoole scored twice. Five years before this Lyme won again with Kerry and Richard (pen) Austin on target in a 2-1 triumph.

The earliest meeting was way back in 1949-50 with Beaminster this time taking home the trophy after a 5-2 victory.

Tomorrow's game is a real tricky one to call. Beaminster won the league encounter on their own turf whilst the recent game at Lyme ended 1-1.

The Seaside do have good cup winning pedigree and have amassed a haul of 16 Premier division and County trophies since the Rainbows first team last tasted glory.

Lyme will be without Joel Gostling who strained medial knee ligaments in the 2-0 win over Farway United at the Davey Fort last Thursday to bring his season a premature end.

The loss of Gostling is a big one. The talented striker has found some of his best form in recent weeks since returning from Axminster Town.

By HOWARD LARCOMBE

But it could result in manager Robin Townsend reverting to last season's 39-goal strike partnership of Julien Simier and Joe Bond.

Simier has been in prolific form scoring 21 goals so far this season. Bond meanwhile has just seven but has often been used as a hard-running wingback in a 3-5-2 line-up.

Another option could be Jason Hawker. But the veteran striker, who scored the winner in the recent Coronation Cup Final victory over Perry Street, has bruised ribs, also a result of the bruising encounter with Farway. Hawker's chances were rated as 70-30 by Townsend at time of going to press.

Meanwhile, work commitments could yet deny Rob Thomson a much-deserved place in the starting XI. The winger has been in superb form of late and gives the side much-needed balance.

Squad (probable) from: Ash Caddy, Laing, Rowe, M.Batey, Adam Caddy, Bailey, S.Batey, Brimicombe, Hawker, Bond, Simier, R.Thomson, Meech, Clifton, Cleal, Thirlwell, Paterson, Durrant.

Back in the league the Seaside hopes of retaining the Premier division title for the first time in their history received a boost on Saturday. Lyme completed an expected 3-1 win at struggling Ilminster Reserves but the big news came from

The Memorial Ground where Beaminster (who else!) beat leaders South Petherton 2-1 to leave the door just slightly ajar for the Seaside.

Lyme will still need either Barrington, Farway or Misterton to take points off Petherton – a tall ask – and they would then need to beat Petherton when the teams meet at the Davey Fort. But stranger things have happened! First things first and the Seaside entertain Merriott Rovers at the Davey Fort on Saturday (2pm ko)

Lyme Reserves continued their superb run of form with a 4-3 win over Norton Athletic. The team will be looking to extend this run, which has now yielded an impressive 15 points from their last six games, when they entertain Forton Rangers on Saturday (4.15pm ko)

The Bantams went down 3-0 at home to Millwey Rise Reserves and, assuming two teams will be relegated, must now take something from their remaining two matches to avoid the drop back down into Division Four.

Uplyme were beaten by the odd goal in nine in an entertaining Division Two clash at leaders Shepton Beauchamp. The Swallows have a Devon-derby at Hawkchurch United at the weekend.

Meanwhile Charmouth went down 6-2 at Millwey Rise and will be relegated from Division One if they fail to win at fourth-placed Netherbury on Saturday.
